Minister's Musings

By Reverend Scott McNeill

Picking up from last month, I'd like to tell you about some events happening as well as thank some people who give and do so much for our congregation.

We are so very close to the beginning of two Sunday morning worship services (September 11 is our first day) and Julie Kirn, Steve Abraham, and the whole Music and Worship Committee have done so much to support this move! We look forward to bringing more people into worship since we'll have more services – so we're happy that people like Megan McGuire and Judy Eller are interested in being worship associates starting this fall!

Member of Second Unitarian Laura Shennum, whom we sponsor as a ministerial candidate, is doing good work at Lincoln Unitarian and helped First and Second Unitarian discuss youth programming. We owe her a great deal of thanks for her ministerial work and preaching at Second this year.

With great advisors like Joe White, Mary Anne Chisholm, Tammy Hunter, and Shari Busse, we are hoping that our YRUU programming continues to grow over the next year. Our youth are well-served by it and our Second Circle programming (housed by the Hannemans and supported by Gay Robinson Abraham, Justin Short, Bryan Scherbring, and Joel Haskins). Hopefully we can continue to grow and grow with our middle school and high school students.

Our physical space continues to look great thanks to Mike Brockman, Lisa Waddell, Pam Curtiss-Smith, and Dodie Robison. I'm amazed to see people like Clyde Anderson, Rick Bell, and Tom Rundquist walking around our grounds to make sure everything is okay on any given trip to Second Unitarian. We are lucky to have people care so much about our congregation – and we thank you.

Don Shennum and Bill Kuhn are leading us on a project to work on building a new website for Second Unitarian. Together with Kathy Bell, Nancy Amsler, and Gary Emenitove, they are working to strengthen our presence online – and make the website more accessible to members and visitors. We hope to offer a sneak peek at the new website in the coming months.

In October, the congregation hopes to restart Covenant Groups, small groups that meet regularly to discuss theology. I plan to host an open covenant group so people can see what it's like (Second Monday, monthly). In addition, Stephanie Peterson, Megan McGuire, and Dave Nesbit are hoping to lead a group, as well. If you're interested in being part of a group, please let me know via email.

One of the furthest things from our mind right now might be fundraising and the pledge drive. I want to thank each and every one of you who donates to Second Unitarian, which gives us the opportunity to transform the world and ourselves through love and justice. I also want to show my gratitude to Clyde Anderson, Sue Aschinger, Marcia Leise, Stu Burns, Vicki Pratt, Chris Peters, and Stephanie Peterson, as well as JoAnne and Darrel Draper for being such gracious givers of their time and energy for supporting the congregation in this form of ministry.

There are a million more people to thank (and many more months to try and thank them) – but I want to write a special note of thanks to Pat Caffrey who gives so much time to be our congregation's treasurer as well as serving our social justice ministry. We owe you so much thanks for the work you do.

In faith,

Rev. Scott McNeill

Planks and Slivers from the Board

By Cheri Cody, Chair, Board of Trustees

As someone who waits all year for summer to roll around, it's hard to believe that another summer is over and I didn't come close to getting done what I'd hoped to do. It is time, however, to formally start another church year which opens up so many opportunities for fun, relationship building, and spiritual growth.

The board members and Rev. Scott came together for a retreat on August 27 to further clarify our vision for the future and to discuss how to optimize and implement our ideas for leadership. Last year, our retreat was a startup weekend with our new minister Rev. Scott, and was led by a Prairie Star District facilitator, Rev. Lisa Schwartz. Because that agenda was so full, we weren't able to establish in-depth goals, so we were grateful this year to have the time needed to develop our goals. More will come on those goals in future newsletters.

On September 11, we will begin our adventure in having two services on Sunday morning. We, as a board, look forward to being present at varying times for the services so we can stay in touch with you. The fall will also bring a busy schedule of activities, new and renewed, so we can keep connected that way, too.

So here's to new beginnings, even if it means that summer has to come to an end for another nine months! See you at church.

Introducing Our Religious Education Staff!

I'm excited to share with Second Unitarian the news of new Religious Growth and Learning staff!

Starting September 4, Jodi Wangsness will be our Director of Religious Education. Jodi is also a full-time chaplain, and her work has included youth ministry. She will lead the program with the Religious Growth and Learning Committee and work on teen and adult programming.

Jodi has a background in working with religion and youth. She received her Master of Divinity degree from Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary, in Berkeley, CA. Since that time, she has worked in parish ministry in North Dakota and in Campus Ministry and Chaplaincy here in Omaha. Jodi has incredible skills in relating to people and great energy for developing spirituality and we hope you all get the chance to connect with her.

Joining her is Kirsten Stiles, our current Childcare Coordinator. Kirsten will become our Religious Education Coordinator, assisting Jodi and the RGL committee in strengthening our program.

Kirsten's background is in Child Development, fourth generation in her family in this field. Children are her passion and are our future. Kirsten has two children: a son, age five and a daughter, age twelve. She serves on the Head Start Policy Council as Vice Chair. Coaching T-Ball and Blast Ball are other rewarding experiences for her.

I look forward to working more with Jodi and Kirsten and hope you meet them soon!

In faith,

Rev. Scott McNeill

Two-Service Sundays Begin September 11

By Rev. Scott McNeill

We will celebrate Water Communion on September 4, 2011 at 10:30 a.m., followed by our annual Ice Cream Social. On the following Sunday (September 11, 2011), we will proceed with two worship services on Sunday morning. In the months that follow, you will see opportunities to connect through potlucks and small group discussions.

Schedule (September 11, 2011-May 20, 2012):

9:30 a.m.	Worship Religious Education (Pre-Kindergarten, Kindergarten-1 st grade, 2 nd -6 th grades)
10:30 a.m.	Coffee Hour Second Circle (first and third Sundays of each month)
11:30 a.m.	Worship Religious Education (Pre-Kindergarten and Kindergarten)
12:45 p.m.	"Forum" - Adult Religious Education (previously, "First Hour")

Making this change is not an easy proposition for the staff, the leadership of the congregation or you, the members. We are incredibly lucky you are willing to sacrifice and work hard in order to strengthen the congregation and its potential for growth. Please take advantage of all of the opportunities to connect with one another as they arise, so that we may stay united as a caring community growing with and because of one another.

In faith,

Rev. Scott

Community Partners

As the church year begins, we thought it might be helpful to delineate the various groups that Second Unitarian Church of Omaha works with.

Omaha Together One Community - A congregation-based community organization, OTOC brings together people of different faiths, cultures, and experiences and strives to make a difference in our city through community organizing. For more information, please contact Pat Caffrey, Cheri Cody, or any of our strong OTOC leaders.

Neighbors United - Though Second Unitarian is not a downtown church, we work with Neighbors United to provide a community meal once every few months. For more, see this month's Share the Plate article.

Prairie Lane Neighborhood Association - As we strive to be good neighbors through our presence, we have sent leaders to the Prairie Lane Neighborhood Association meetings. We hope to strengthen our connections through relationships with individuals, congregations, and through our growing community garden.

Inclusive Communities - This organization provided a workshop on understanding difference and identity in 2010 and then invited us to join their "Faith in Action" program, joining seven other faith communities in working on building understanding of diversity. We hope to work with Inclusive Communities more in the future.

Looking to Make Friends?

This fall, Second Unitarian is launching small groups to help people connect to one another. Some of these groups are serious, some social, some active, and some casual. For more information, contact Rev. Scott or the people listed.

ASN's Coffee Talk: A Group for Caregivers and Loved Ones of Adults with Autism Spectrum Disorders

In coordination with the Autism Society of Nebraska, we will host discussions groups on the first Thursdays and third Saturdays each month, starting in October. For more information, contact Rev. Scott.

Pagan/Earth-based Spirituality

On October 30, several members and friends of Second Unitarian will lead a worship about pagan spirituality. Following that worship, we will convene a group of interested folks to meet to discuss Paganism and explore rituals.

Covenant Groups

Covenant groups are small groups that meet regularly to discuss theological topics (faith, forgiveness, hope, etc.) and connect with one another. Contact Rev. Scott as he lines up facilitators and times.

"No More Time Cards"

Join other retirees for conversation and friendship, with the occasional education experience/discussion. For more information, including times, talk to the minister or Richard Koelling.

Want something not listed? Let us know by emailing minister@secondunitarianomaha.org.

Share the Plate

Last spring, our congregation decided to expand our outreach by splitting one-half of the offering (cash and checks marked "offering") we receive with social justice partners in Omaha and throughout the world.

September marks the start of our Share the Plate program and our first recipient is in support of the Neighbors United Community Meal project. Roughly once a quarter, Second Unitarian has cooked and shared a meal with people who need food for the body and soul.

The program takes place every Saturday in downtown Omaha and different secular and religious groups cook each week. The Social Justice Coordinating Council and Board approved this program as our first Share the Plate recipient, in part due to our existing work with the program and also because our next meal is on September 17.

If you would like to assist us, please contact Don Shennum for more information. If you would like to nominate an organization for our Share the Plate program, visit our website or contact the Social Justice Coordinating Council or Rev. Scott.

Committee on Ministry Forum September 18

After a year of settled ministry, the Committee on Ministry has taken the time to evaluate parts of how our ministry is going.

On September 18, after the second service, the committee invites you to join us for a discussion on how things are going, what the minister does and what the lay people do, and where we are headed.

For more information, contact one of the members of the Committee on Ministry (Gay Robinson Abraham, Anita Jeck, Richard Koelling, Tina Labellarte, Craig Piquette, or Betty Segell) or the minister.

Vespers Services Begin September 25

Sunday, September 24, 5 p.m.: Be Quiet! Amidst all of the busy-ness of life (and before the holiday rush), we join in worship and experience the reverence of silence. Julie Kirn will lead our first Vespers service this night, which will focus on the importance of true silence.

Sunday, October 23, 5 p.m.: Join Lorraine Duggin other members of FaSoLa Omaha Shape-Note singers for our second Vespers service. In October, we will create worship by learning about and practicing Shape-Note Singing! Come make a joyful noise! Look for information in next month's newsletter about our November 27 Vespers!

Second Circle

FOR TEENS OF SECOND UNITARIAN

By Gay Robinson Abraham

*Come into this circle of community.
 Come into this sacred space.
 Be not tentative. Bring your whole self!
 Bring the joy that makes your heart sing.
 Bring your kindness and your compassion.
 Bring also your sorrow, your pain.
 Bring your brokenness and your disappointments.
 Spirit of love and mystery; help us to recognize the spark of the divine that resides within each of us.
 May we know the joy of wholeness.
 May we know the joy of being together.*

- Andrew Pakula

The first meeting of Second Circle will be on September 18 at 10:30 a.m.

All teens are invited to join Second Circle, meeting between the two services at 10:30 a.m. on the first and third Sundays of the month, September through May. We gather in the church foyer and walk over together to our space across the street.

Our time is spent focused on connection—connecting to each other, to the outer community, to the world, and to our religious and spiritual selves. We explore through discussion, ritual, media, and a variety of activities. All meetings are facilitated by two adult volunteers from our church community.

Please refer questions to Gay Robinson Abraham.

Writing for Spiritual Growth

During First Hour at 9 a.m. on September 4, we celebrate by placing our understanding of spirituality into poetry and prose, which adds clarity and passion to our lives. Join us in creating the world we desire through the written word. All members and friends of the Second Unitarian Church of Omaha are welcome to participate. We welcome all sojourners who wish to share the paths on which they walk in search of enlightenment. We have no creeds, no goals, no competitive members, and no grades. Our group's motto is "Just Write." Our belief is the truth for each person will appear, when we write enough. - David Martin

Fall Church Cleanup - Saturday, October 8

By Tom Rundquist & Clyde Anderson, Co-Chairs – Building & Grounds

Mark your calendars now! Our Fall Church Cleanup is scheduled for Saturday, October 8, from 8 a.m. to noon. There will be plenty of tasks for everyone! See the October Second Thoughts newsletter and church website for details.

Please contact Clyde Anderson or Tom Rundquist if you have a task we should schedule for October 8. For example, the Aesthetics Committee suggested that we install a second rope and pulley system to hang a second banner on the north wall of the Sanctuary by the north stairwell.

First Hour Becomes Forum!

By Anita Jeck, Lifespan Religious Growth & Learning

As we take on the exciting challenge of holding two worship services, many of us are asking "What will become of First Hour?" First Hour has traditionally met the hour before the church service (hence "first" hour) as a time to present and discuss issues surrounding the living of our Unitarian Universalist values, such as Writing for Spiritual Growth, politics, UU history and issues, ethical eating, sharing journeys, as well as many other topics.

Now we'd like to explore a bit what the possibilities might be for this new First Hour turned Forum. You are invited to join us at 12:45 p.m. on Sunday, September 25, for a light lunch and a forum on Forum!

Gathered Here

By Rev. Scott McNeill

The Unitarian Universalist Association is working on a new project to discern what our faith does well and what that means for our future, using a process called Appreciative Inquiry.

This new project will take course over the next eighteen months as congregations, individuals, groups, staff, leaders and more sit with questions about how it feels when we are at our best, as a faith.

Rev. Scott has been invited to co-lead this project with thirteen other senior facilitators (in addition to the project leaders) from around the country.

In the coming months, Rev. Scott will ask you to participate in conversations about our faith, our history, and our vision as a church and as a denomination. This provides each of us with an opportunity to shape the future of Unitarian Universalism!

It's Book Sale Time!

By Melissa Konecky, Chair, Library Committee

It's almost time for the annual Second Unitarian Macyl Boruff Library Committee book sale, Sunday, September 25 and October 2. Have you been looking for a great excuse to get rid of some books you no longer need, or have already read? We want your unwanted books! If you want to get rid of some books, just bring them to the church and set them near the library. Videos, DVDs and magazines are welcome also! You will have an opportunity to purchase some "new" material or simply browse. So, dust off those old books that are taking up space and make room for some new purchases. The cost is simply a free-will donation.

Additions to Our Library

By Vicki Pratt, Library Committee

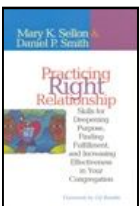

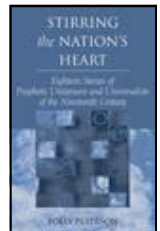

Our Library contains nonfiction that researches or describes our UU principles and values. Everyone is encouraged to browse the shelves to find something of interest. Our library operates on the honor system -- write your name on the card at the back of the book and put the card in the blue box on the shelf. Then return the book to that shelf and the Library Committee will put it away.

Thanks to your generous contributions to last year's fundraising book sale, the Library Committee recently purchased:

Coming Out in Faith by Keith Kron and Susan Gore. This collection of testimonials illuminates the lives of LGBT Unitarian Universalists and raises awareness of the strengths they bring to questions of personal faith and organizational vitality.

Stirring the Nation's Heart: 18 Stories of Prophetic UUs of the 19th Century by Polly Peterson. This study guide contains quotes and stories of the lives of reformers and Transcendentalists Thoreau, Emerson, Peabody, Dix, and Alcott. Includes activities and group discussion questions appropriate for adult RE as well as family conversations of our proud history.

Practicing Right Relationship by Daniel Smith and Mary Sellon. The authors make the case that the health of a congregation depends on learning how to live out love in right relationships.

PRIVACY POLICY FOR CHURCH PUBLICATIONS

As stated in church policies: Respect for the privacy of members, friends, and visitors is a primary consideration. When newsletter submissions contain personal information (phone number, street address, email address, etc.), it is the author's responsibility to get the subject's permission to publish this information. Since many of our communications are transmitted electronically and information therein may more easily be re-transmitted, it's essential that any personal information be approved for inclusion. In general, it's preferable to omit personal information, but in those cases where it's necessary (such as a location for an offsite meeting), those who submit articles should ask for permission to publish the personal information. An alternative is "Please call or email the church office for contact information." Contact the Office Administrator for more information.

Regarding published photographs: If you do not want your photo published (including in the newsletter or on the website), please inform the Office Administrator in writing. Thanks!

Membership Journeys

By Kathy Bell, Volunteer Membership Coordinator

Are you thinking about becoming a member of Second Unitarian Church? We invite all who are interested in membership to participate in our next "Pathways to Membership" class on Saturday, October 1, from 8:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

After a tasty breakfast, you will learn about the history of Unitarian Universalism and of this church, be given the opportunity to share a few words about your religious journeys with each other, hear about our ministries, and learn about the benefits and expectations of church membership.

Although there is no pressure to do so, many find this a meaningful time to sign the Membership Book. We will wrap up the morning with lunch and fellowship with several church leaders.

RSVP: Please reserve your spot in class by contacting Kathy Bell by Sunday, September 25. Please indicate if you will need childcare when you sign up for the class.

Meditation Reincarnated

By Kevin Dunlop

Have you ever tried meditation before? Do you know what meditation is or how to do it? Each month a group of church members and friends of the church meet to learn and practice the art of meditation. We study the writings of accomplished meditators and discuss how to apply these teachings in our own lives. We are now studying the book Taking The Leap by Pema Chodron.

Meditation Reincarnated meets on the fourth Thursday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the sanctuary. Our next meeting will be Thursday, September 22. Please join us in learning what can become a very fulfilling practice in your life. It's a wonderful way to learn relaxation skills and to grow spiritually. No previous meditative experience is required.

35th Anniversary Party August 6, 2011

Thirty five years and going strong! We celebrated our history with a potluck, chalk drawing, bubbles, a chalice lighting and reading, and stories from several of our original members. A good time was had by all, and the event was capped by a spectacular lightning show!

Thanks to Paint-A-Thon Volunteers

Our enthusiastic volunteers completed our 15th Paint-A-Thon house despite heat, humidity, and storms! Thanks to all the volunteers from First and Second Unitarian Churches who participated. Carolyn, the home owner, is most appreciative of our work. To see photos of the house before and after, visit <http://www.secondunitarianomaha.org/?id=paintathon>
