Second Unitarian Church of Omaha Rules for the Annual Meeting

The Handling of a Motion:

- A member makes a motion. ("Member" means voting member of the Church.)
- Another member seconds the motion.
- The chair states the question on the motion.

Neither the making nor the seconding of a motion places it before the assembly; only the chair can do that (with step 3). When the chair has stated the question, the motion is pending and is open for debate.

Members debate the motion (unless no member claims the floor to do so). During debate, no one shall speak more than two minutes (unless the assembly declares its desire to waive this rule for a specific speaker). No one is entitled to the floor a second time on the same motion as long as any other member who has not spoken on this motion desires the floor. With the permission of the chair, a non-member may participate in debate (please identify yourself as a non-member when recognized by the chair, so there is no confusion).

The chair asks if there is any further discussion and, if there is not, puts the question to a vote, calling for those in favor, those opposed, and those abstaining.

The chair announces the result of the vote.

During the debate on the motion, a member may call for the "question," which is a request to close debate and proceed to a vote. The chair may observe that the question has been called and ask if there is any objection to closing debate. If there appears to be significant objection, the chair may allow the debate to proceed. If a member wishes to press for closure, she/he may seek recognition and "move the previous question." This is a priority-taking motion, which, if seconded, must be voted on immediately. If it carries by a 2/3 majority, then debate on the previous motion is terminated, and the chair proceeds immediately to put the previous question to a vote. Otherwise, debate on the previous motion continues.

In cases of questions on parliamentary procedure, the chair shall rule. If the ruling is contested, the assembly shall vote on whether or not to uphold.

VOTING SECTION

NOMINATIONS

The Nominations and Leadership Development Committee is pleased to present an outstanding slate of candidates for the Board and Endowment and Nominations Committees. Members will vote for the candidates at our May 18 Annual Congregational Meeting. Following are short biographies from each of the candidates.

Board of Trustees

Pat Caffrey

A special thank you to all for being Second Unitarian Church! I joined you in November, 2005, and have served as a member and chair of the Social Justice Committee and OTOC leader, Auction Fundraiser co-chair, Treasurer, and member of the Committee on Ministry team. In April of this year, I participated in the Unitarian Universalist Association MidAmerica Regional Assembly in Topeka, KS, where I was reminded of one of the reasons for choosing to become a Unitarian Universalist -- the Hunger for Justice! My commitment to justice was sparked once again. It is my hope that we work together to build strong relationships, which is pivotal to a strong faith community, in order to carry out our mission within and beyond Second Unitarian Church.

Judy Eller (final year of term vacated by Bill Kuhn; Judy was appointed for second year of term)

I have always been Unitarian – I just didn't always know it! For many years I searched for a church home, a community of people who knew that there is not just one right religion. I knew there had to be other people who respected all religions and knew that you didn't have to recite a creed or be "saved" to be a good person. The first time I walked in the door at Second Unitarian I knew this was a place I could call my spiritual home. I signed the membership book in August of 2009 – it was a life-changing decision.

I have been actively involved in the Fellowship committee and have served as co-chair for 2 years. Fellowship provides an opportunity to serve others while fulfilling an important social function for our community. It is a ministry of giving, but what I get in return far outweighs what I give. When I was approached by the board to step in and finish a term on the board, I was honored and a little overwhelmed by the responsibility. I appreciate the confidence the board has placed in me. I have learned a lot about the workings of Second Unitarian and have great respect for the people who serve in a volunteer capacity as well as the salaried professionals who guide our community. I feel that my experience in public service (I have been a school teacher for 30 years), my experiences on the board for the past 7 months, and my commitment to Unitarianism make me a good candidate to continue to serve on the board.

Anita Meyer

My husband Gary Toth and I joined the church in 2002. Our son Alex was very young at that time and my first involvement at Second Unitarian was volunteering in the nursery. Since then I have taught religious education, been a committee member, served as a co-chair, and am currently chair of the Religious Growth and Learning Committee. I was co-chair during the initiation of Service Learning Projects where learning takes place once a month doing work for others outside of the classroom. During my position as co-chair, we transitioned from one director of religious education to our current interim DRE. I also serve on the Personnel Committee and was involved in creation of new personnel evaluation forms and determination of pay for our staff.

In my professional life I am a toxicologist for the Army Corps of Engineers and serve on various workgroups composed of Department of Defense Service representatives as well as workgroups composed of staff from various federal and state regulatory agencies. I lead a group of service toxicologists that reviews EPA toxicological reports and I work with EPA to resolve differences.

I am grateful for the opportunities I've had for personal and spiritual growth at Second Unitarian and also for the relationships I have here. I would be honored to serve our church on the Board of Trustees and especially in this first year of implementing the new strategic plan.

Nominations and Leadership Development

Janet Nichols

I became a Unitarian Universalist in 1984 by joining the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Topeka, KS. I was raised a Methodist. While at Topeka, I held various positions in the church including co-DRE and teaching Religious Education at various levels. My co-DRE and I organized a summer Peace Camp for elementary children, which over the years became a community event.

I came to Second Unitarian in 1997. I have been a part of this growing community at various levels as well. I have been co-chair of the Fellowship Committee serving several terms. I have served on the Religious Growth and Learning Committee and have taught Religious Education at various levels. I was also on the YAC (Youth Adult Committee) when my son was in the youth group. I have served on the Nominations Committee. Professionally, I am an Early Childhood Special Education teacher.

This is an exciting time with the new long range plan direction toward leadership growth in our spiritual community. I am challenged and excited to be a part of this leadership path to serve on the Nominations and Leadership Committee.

Endowment Committee

Cheri Cody

I joined Second Unitarian Church in 1977 and my children grew up in this church. I have served on four boards and was president for three of them. I have chaired Music & Worship, Membership, Social Justice, Denominational Connections, and the 2004 Long Range Planning Committee. I have worked on special efforts such as multiple long range planning committees, the extension ministry task force, and two search committees. I co-chaired the local arrangements host committee for the 2008 Prairie Star District conference in Omaha.

Since 1989 I've been involved in a number of committees and positions with Prairie Star District (now MidAmerica Region). In 2007 I completed the certification training as a facilitator for the Healthy Congregations curriculum. I continue as a lay consultant doing board retreats and other workshops with congregations.

Three years ago I was appointed to the Open UUA Committee which works to achieve transparency in the work of the UUA Board and associated committees. Earlier this year I was trained to be a UUA Compensation Consultant and I serve a portion of the MidAmerica Region. When assistance is requested, I work with congregations which are in search for professional ministers to help them determine optimal salary options.

I look forward to working with the other members of the Endowment Committee to enhance our planned giving possibilities.

LEADERSHIP AND STAFF

Settled Parish Minister, Rev. Scott McNeill

The successes of each year of ministry are shown through the connections I facilitate at the church. I hope to support the spiritual growth of members (and visitors) to our church. Sometimes I do that through keeping our congregation running in the background; and, sometimes I do that through actively leading programs. On one hand, I have a charge to pastor to the members of our congregation. And on the other, I am called to reach out to the broader Omaha community, seeking to bring in people who want to join our community.

2013-14 was a particularly notable year, in terms of our presence in the larger community. Over the past few years, I've developed relationships with leaders of different communities and agencies in Omaha (and the larger UUA) – and our congregation's work has been noticed outside of our walls. The Omaha World-Herald sought out our perspective on worship for their "From The Pulpit" series (I had been part of their cycle previously; but during some staff turnover, we were dropped and then they sought us out rather than my asking them to include us). Researchers at the UNMC studied the connections between individuals who are gay, lesbian, bisexual and/or transgendered and the larger Omaha community – and we were one of the few faith communities present in the conversation. Students from high schools, colleges, and grad schools learned and wrote about our church.

Within our church walls, I have sought to balance the continuation of past work with the creation of new programs. I am excited that we are restarting Covenant Groups! If you haven't participated in one before, they can be one of the most meaningful ways people connect in congregations. While Covenant Groups are great because they pave the path to spiritual reflection, other small groups also help people connect. I'm delighted that the retirees group has continued over the past few years. The Parents' Group hasn't fared as well (go figure – it's a particularly busy group of people!), but many of the parents have connected with one another (especially true for those who have delivered little ones in the past year).

A particular change in my work over the past year has been my focus on our congregation. When I was first called to Omaha, I shared that I intended to stay active in our larger Association in various ways (social justice, collegial gatherings, leading worship). While this work is still important to me, the challenges of traveling to volunteer for our Association (particularly with a little one at home) has meant that I've stepped back from committees and work on the national level. Still, these connections are critical to our ministry – we gain invaluable insights from the UUA, and technology allows us to stay connected in many ways. For this season of my ministry, I hope to continue to invite colleagues to lead worship in Omaha and to support the work of our broader faith – but I've airline snacks for the stale cheerios that come standard with almost every child. It's a trade I've been happy to make.

Finally, a note of thanks. I'm in awe of the commitment people make to our church – whether it's helping on Sunday morning, volunteering throughout the week, or giving time and resources to the church. Whatever gifts you share with this community, know that I am incredibly grateful for all that you bring. We're made better by those whose hands and hearts shape our church.

Interim Director of Religious Education, Molly Kliment Jenkins

The past year has been one of learning - not only for our members, Religious Education (RE) leaders and families participating in Sundays or adult RE - but also for me as I strive to get a grasp of the DRE position. We had many successes and a few learning experiences along the way.

For convenience sake, I am referring to adults in the classrooms as "teachers" and the time for children on Sundays downstairs apart from worship as "Sunday school."

Curriculum for Sundays

The Religious Growth and Learning (RGL) committee selected three curricula for the school year, and divided our students up into rough cohorts based on age. The classes were taught in the service(s) that fit their demographic. "Stories About God," (SAG) designed for our preschool crowd, tend to frequent the early-bird service. The next group, our elementary students, worked through "Holidays and Holy Days - Spirit Play," (H&H) a Montessori adapted curriculum, which we provided at both services. Our oldest cohort of students, the late elementary/middle school/junior high crowd, went through "Amazing Grace" (AG) together at the latter service. Preschoolers who come to the late service or our pre-teens at the first service participated in the "Holidays and Holy Days" classes.

Feedback from the SAG and AG classes has been positive, both with parents/instructors. H&H has had some rough times as my teacher training day was before I was thoroughly familiar with the curriculum and how to execute it. As a Montessori-style class, it has some unique characteristics. It also was adapted from an early 1980s curriculum, Holidays and Holy Days, and was not a totally smooth adaptation. We have found some "misinformation" in the curricula. It also was designed for a longer class time than what we have: the stories are particularly long.

We had 19 children registered for Sundays and an average Sunday school attendance of 14 children.

Childcare

Kaitlyn Hayes has been our regular provider for the past year on Sundays in the nursery and has done a wonderful job. The children love her and she is very dependable. We have regularly had an average of three children split between the two services: two in the early service and one in the later service.

I added child care training for the youth who help us with child care. Our first training was in January and attended by three youth. I am hopeful that by offering in the fall before classes start we can have better attendance and, hence, better prepared teens for whatever they may encounter. I also worked with the Retiree's Group to schedule a CPR class to make it available to families and youth.

Service Learning Projects (SLPs)

An average of 12 people attended each SLP this year. As part of the promotion/identity, feeling of teamwork and overall "thank you," RGL purchased t-shirts with the church log. They are free to the kids and available at cost for adults.

Miscellaneous Items

Many housekeeping items were tackled in the early days of my interim tenure at 2U. The DRE office was in a state of chaos following two moves. The craft closets were gathered up by Pam Curtis-Smith, but there was still a lot of duplication of supplies in various locations. Materials from previous DREs were located in both paper/binder and electronic versions.

During my initial months, I not only strived to master the curriculum but also gain a grasp of the position and get a sense of history. I cleaned out many of the old supplies and consolidated what we had. I also changed the DRE function so that, contrary to what past DREs had done, I did most of the craft/display prep work for the Sunday volunteers so they could focus on feeling confident in teaching the materials. It also contributed to tidier cabinets and fewer duplicate supplies being purchased. I also had a volunteer help me organize the old curriculum closet so we would have a good grasp on what curriculum we had on hand.

I also went through and moved the vast majority of documentation onto GoogleDocs, which provides online access, backup protection and free software/upgrades. There have been a few trade offs, but overall, it's been a good experience.

Office Administrator, Gary Emenitove

Newsletter Staff: Nancy Amsler, Richard Koelling, Tom Peterson, Betty Segell, and Rev. Scott McNeill

Not long after I arrived here, the then-chair of the Technology Committee expressed that the church office needed a better computer and operating system. This year was when that happened! The new office computer has solved the computer crashing issues, while providing the intellectual challenge of a learning curve of a new operating system, upgrades of many software programs, and the ability to do just about anything we ask it to.

One of the uses of the new computer has been to upgrade our Weekly eNews to Constant Contact, a professional-level email marketing company that already has helped improve the look and content and in the future should continue to improve how we handle other church communications.

Working with other staff and volunteers, we've done some organizing and documentation of church supplies and their locations, and we're beginning to reorganize church files.

Along with the Building & Grounds Committee and Rev. Scott, we've moved to a professional custodial service for the church, which at the time of this report is in its first month of service.

It's a pleasure to be working with the professional staff at 2U. We seem to strike just the right balance of thinking, working, and laughing.

Music Director, Donna Zebolsky

Choir Members: Tom Peterson, Julie Kirn, Bill Kuhn, Deb Gibson, Elizabeth Thompson, and Chris Peters

Meg Quintana, Jennie White, and Joe White also sang with us for part of this last year. We hope to have Joe and Jennie join us again as soon as their circumstances permit.

The choir sang at 7 services during the year: Oct. 13, Nov. 24, Dec. 22, Jan 26, Feb. 23, Mar. 2, and Apr. 13, and May 18.

Many thanks to Julie Kirn who serves as our choir librarian.

ADMINISTRATIVE

Committee on Ministry

Submitted by: Pat Caffrey

Members: Sue Aschinger, Pat Caffrey, Louisa Foster, Julie Kirn, Greg Minter, and Rev. Scott McNeill (ex officio)

The Committee On Ministry's (CoM) role is to monitor, support, and strengthen the work of shared ministry at Second Unitarian Church in pursuit of our common vision and congregational mission.

At the beginning of the year, the CoM focused on discussing and understanding the role of the CoM using various resources including the Second Unitarian Standing Rules and Covenant and UUA resources. Action steps from last year's evaluation were reviewed. CoM members had the opportunity to work with committees, members and Rev. Scott at various points in time during the last year. CoM members, Board members and Rev. Scott participated in a day long session with Thea Nietfeld, a consultant with the UUA MidAmerica Region to strengthen communication and build healthy relationships. It was a very productive day where we explored the opportunities for Second Unitarian to continue to be a vibrant congregation and how to use change, conflict, covenant, and shared ministry as components in bringing about our mission in the church and in the world.

Understanding that building relationships is important, yet at times challenging, the CoM is proposing a three-part workshop that would be offered to the congregation with the intent of helping our community to deepen their relationships with one another to further our commitment to living in right relationship and promote our vision of an authentic, compassionate and transformative community.

The CoM is currently completing the annual UUA evaluation of the Minister which also includes evaluating our ministry as a congregation.

Nominations & Leadership Development

Submitted by Carol Johnson

Members: Carol Johnson, Chair; Richard Koelling, and Tom Peterson

The Nominations & Leadership Development Committee is an elected position with the members serving a 3-year term. Our primary purpose is to provide candidates who are eligible, experienced, and capable to fulfill the duties for positions on the Board of Trustees and on the Nominations/Leadership and Endowment Committees.

This year in addition to filling the two positions for the Board for the regular rotation, we also provided a third candidate to fill a vacancy due to a board resignation. Nominees for the next election were communicated to the congregation in the May Newsletter as stated in the By-laws.

We also discussed the committee's role and responsibility for leadership development with other committees, the Board and the minister. We hosted a MidAmerica Leadership Development Webinar in November and are recruiting members for other leadership development opportunities such as Midwest Leadership Train

Personnel Committee

Submitted by Carol Johnson

Members: Nancy Amsler, Anita Meyer and Carol Johnson

The major achievement of the Personnel Committee for this 2013-2014 church year was to redesign the process and forms for giving feedback on the performance of church employees. The process includes garnering input from committees/ individuals who work closely with the employee. It also encourages goal-setting for the position that includes input from the employee, the minister and members who work closely with the position.

Strategic Planning

Submitted by Carol Johnson

Members: Steve Abraham, Carol Johnson, Rich McArdle, Stephanie Peterson or Craig Piquette.

The Strategic Planning Committee submitted a plan to the Board of Trustees in this spring for their approval. Members of the committee led several meetings with congregational leaders, staff and general membership to inform the congregation about the content of the plan. The plan focuses on Second Unitarian Becoming a ReNEWed Church.

The following narrative, goals and strategies are taken from the plan. The committee encourages all members and affiliates to read the plan in its entirety for more about the rationales and tactics of the plan. The plan is online and printed copies are available for review.

“In order to grow and thrive, the members and staff of Second Unitarian Church of Omaha must clearly articulate and fully understand our evolving common community identity. This identity is fed by our religious tradition, informed by our mission, and shared by our covenants. It must be strongly articulated by our leaders in cooperation with our professional staff. It must be clearly and tirelessly communicated to our members. The congregation must understand it, take ownership of it and project it to the larger community”

GOAL: Maturation Growth at a Personal Level

Strategy 1: Strengthen Sunday mornings at Second Unitarian as a place and time to gather in community and grow in spirit.

Strategy 2: Develop strong religious education programs for the whole community.

Strategy 3: Make personal ministry a requirement of membership

GOAL: Maturation Growth at the Organizational Level

Strategy 1: Redesign the organizational structure of the church, so that it is inclusive of more members and more open to change.

Strategy 2: Continue to strengthen the financial foundation of the church

GOAL: Shared Ministry

Strategy 1: Offer mentoring, training and support for congregational leaders and for specific ministries within the congregation

Strategy 2: Regularly and publicly commit to our ministry together by integrating the various parts of ministry into our individual lives and in our church.

Members: Dodie Robison, chair; Norma Koelling, Donna Dudley, Victoria Dudley, Cynthia Lynne, Rev. Scott McNeill (ex-officio)

Mission: The Committee's mission is to build a caring community that will help and support each of our members as we experience the events, stages, and transitions of life.

- Activities: Contacted members celebrating joys and dealing with illness and sorrows. Contacts are made by cards, notes, calls, or visits. Information for these contacts is gained from the Sunday Service Joys and Concerns, from members of the congregation, and from Rev. McNeill.
- Provided assistance for members with special needs
- Assisted with memorial services and the reception that follows
- Sponsored "The Power of Music" pastoral care program. The program was well-attended and the committee received many favorable comments.

Goals: Develop a more reliable method of notifying Rev. McNeill of Joys and Concerns when he is not in the pulpit. Survey congregation concerning pastoral care programs or workshops that would be helpful and of special interest.

Communications Committee & Marketing Advisory Council

Submitted by Nancy Amsler

Communications Committee

Members: Dodie Robison, Carlynn Hartman Kurtz (co-chair), Nancy Amsler (co-chair), Ex-officio members: Rev. Scott McNeill and Gary Emenitove.

This committee has been mostly inactive this year, but occasionally acts in a consultant role.

Marketing Advisory Council

Members: Kathy Bell, Carol Johnson and Nancy Amsler (chair). Ex-officio members: Rev. Scott McNeill and Gary Emenitove. Graphics Advisor is Molly Kliment-Jenkins.

This council is designed to "brand" the church, and to help make it and its activities more visible to the community. It serves in an advisory capacity to assist committees with publicizing their activities.

The council continues to work on the church website, and has incorporated the new logo with a complementary color scheme. Numerous changes have been made to improve the website's accuracy, relevance, aesthetics, and ease of use.

The website effort is just one component of our ongoing effort to increase/improve our visibility in the community using a cohesive brand. Other components include the newly designed ads and slides, and a new banner which was unveiled at our Earth Day booth..

A file of user-friendly documents, including templates for ads, posters, and slides, and guidelines for their use is available on the website. These are password protected and the password can be obtained from the Office Administrator.

The council has increased its focus on press releases, most recently the Retiree's Group and the End of Life workshop..

Ads have been placed on KIOS Radio, in the PFLAG newsletter, the Pride Players play bill, and Google Ad Words

We assisted with the development of the new religious education brochure.

We assisted with organizing the foyer and First Hour area and has submitted suggestions for branding the outside to the Board.

Works in progress are updating the list of media contacts and assisting with the look of booths for events such as Earth Day.

Denominational Connections

Submitted by Vicki Pratt

This church year I made a commitment to myself to resuscitate and invigorate our congregation's connections to UUs and UU congregations. One of my goals was to make everyone aware of benefits we receive from our MidAmerica Region and the national UUA. These benefits include all kinds of training, staff expertise, curricula, various means of paper and electronic communications, and annual get togethers. I featured a benefit in each monthly newsletter and also let the Board, Staff, and Committee Chairs know about pertinent upcoming training.

Another goal was to let everyone know how to make personal connections with other UUs. Newsletter articles featured summer camps, Church of the Larger Fellowship, and ways to hook up with social media.

I had to be creative on the goal of nominating members for regional awards. I didn't know the awards had been suspended for a year while regional staff evaluated the awards process. So I used the newsletter to give another shout out to past winners from our own congregation.

My goal of promoting attendance at the Regional Assembly in Topeka, KS and General Assembly in Providence, RI was achieved. Pat Caffrey, Cheri Cody, JoAnne and Darrel Draper, Donna Dudley, Carol Johnson, and I were at Topeka. We know of at least one member who will be at GA. The business meeting portion of these get togethers is how our denomination lives out our Fifth Principle, Participation in the Democratic Process.

The Fifth Principle was the reason for my goal of keeping members and business meeting delegates informed about issues to be voted on. This happened at our congregation's February's forum and vote on the proposed new Social Justice Study/Action Issues.

Two goals remain unfilled as I move on to other volunteer opportunities within our congregation: getting more of our members involved at the regional and national levels and engagement by more than a Chair. Now that the committee is resuscitated I leave the invigorating to those who follow.

Lifespan Religious Growth and Learning

Submitted by Anita Meyer

Co-chairs: Anita Jeck (until January 2014) and Anita Meyer

Members: Jaime Short and Pam Curtiss-Smith

Our committee overcame the obstacle of changing Director of Religious Education in the middle of the summer. After the DRE left, one of our church members, Molly Kliment, offered to be interim DRE and her assistance in getting the R.E. "school year" kicked off was invaluable and her good work continues. We offered a new class for middle schoolers, and offered a class for pre-school through first graders and another class for elementary age children. We were able to easily recruit a sufficient number of volunteers to staff all of those classes and were delighted to receive this support from the congregation – we were also happy to get feedback from several of our teachers of how this work has furthered their spiritual development.

We continued to forgo R.E. classes one Sunday a month and provide Service Learning Project opportunities for our children, youth and church members. These projects show the children that they can be a transformative force in their community. Organizations we supported included Planned Parenthood, making blankets for Project Harmony, the VFW by making sleeping mats for veterans out of recycled grocery bags, and two projects pictured below. We also continued the tradition of sponsoring our church's adoption of families in need at the holidays.

The photos below show Second Unitarians having fun while making art out of recycled materials at Fontenelle Forest. The art work was used in an exhibit sponsored by the Smithsonian at the forest.

Macyl Boruff Library Committee

Submitted by Pete Miller

Members: Pete Miller, Chair; Gwen Eurich, Vicki Pratt, Lorraine Duggin, Melissa Konecky

The Macyl Boruff Memorial Library Committee experienced some major changes in 2013-2014. Due to changes in how committees are funded, the Macyl Boruff Memorial Fund was dissolved.

The money was put to great use, starting with the purchase of a new library plaque commemorating Macyl Boruff. We also paid for the design and printing of some beautiful bookmarks, and made a contribution in Macyl Boruff's name to the Radio Talking Book Service. Another portion went to gift certificates that will be used for the purchase of new library materials. The remainder of the fund went into the Endowment Fund.

This year we purchased eleven new books, with a focus on Social Justice titles. The Library was proud to make several of these titles available on-site at the Social Justice Summit.

We also enjoyed participating in the annual Book Sale, which was a great success. The committee has worked to make the library a more organized place; we are conducting a full inventory now so we can replace lost titles. We have also created new shelf space by moving the old TV and finding a new place for the new member board.

Music and Worship/Aesthetics

Music and Worship

Submitted by Tom Peterson

Members: Committee members for 2013-2014 were: Tom Peterson, Chair; Vicki Dudley, Lorraine Duggin, Julie Kirn, Michael Lynne, Chris Peters, and Jennie White.

In a year with many highlights, the high point must certainly have been the Commitment Sunday Service. The cumulative efforts of numerous groups, including the Choir, Aesthetics, Fellowship, Stewardship, RGL, and Building and Grounds, combined to transform a school auditorium into a worship space and a cafeteria into a fellowship hall for over 100 members and friends of Second Unitarian.

M&W Associates, with guidance from Rev. McNeill, continue to explore personal growth through worship, to deepen our understanding of the meaning of ritual, and our shared spiritual experience. Working to support Rev. McNeill and our guest speakers, we strive to create cohesive, meaningful services.

Our average Sunday attendance through 2013 was 94.94, and 96.19 through the first 16 weeks of 2014.

Aesthetics / Second Showing

Submitted by Pam Curtiss-Smith

Members: Pam Curtiss-Smith, Dodie Robison

At the beginning of this church year, the Aesthetics committee worked with members of other committees to improve the welcoming feel of the church.

With our combined efforts, we achieved this by applying fresh paint and new furniture in the foyer and stairwell. We also reduced the amount of information posted in the entryway and created a more consistent look with the more permanent information there.

In the sanctuary, a new, decorative screen replaced one loaned by Dodie to mask the electronic system cabinet behind the piano. The screen provides a nice backdrop for the pianists as well.

Special or significant events warrant special decoration, so Aesthetics used two new artificial trees donated by Julie Kirn and Bill Kuhn in 2012 during the winter holiday season. The festive atmosphere drew many comments from 2U members. Flowers for Commitment Sunday and the following brunch were arranged for and provided some spring color for the snowy morning's event, Transforming the school performance space to a sacred space for 2U members.

Social Justice Coordinating Council

Submitted by Pat Caffrey

Social Justice Summit

On Jan. 18th, 2014, Second Unitarian Church held a Social Justice Summit at Project Harmony, where 45 Second Unitarian justice makers gathered with facilitator, Jacqui Williams. Jacqui is a member of First Unitarian Universalist Society of Albany; previous Chair of Catalyst, St. Lawrence District's anti racism/anti oppression/ multicultural committee; was president of DRUUMM (Diverse and Revolutionary UU Multicultural Ministries); and currently, Jacqui serves on the UUA Presidential Search Committee.

Participants held conversations in breakout sessions that addressed questions such as: 1) What was missed in the discussions so far; 2) What has stopped and wonder why; 3) What is near and dear to your heart; 4) What do we have and want more of; and 5) Intersectionality – Dove tail with other committees, organizations, etc.

Feedback from participants:

Enjoyed the presentation a lot; Jacqui was an excellent facilitator; Felt that the group breakdowns did much to challenge what needs to be done and to think about how to accomplish the goals; Do not marginalize those, who for whatever reason, have limitations with involvement; Much food for thought and action; Very informative and inspirational; Great workshop!

My heart is drawn to environmental action but esp. toward working with the intersectionality of wherever I focus.

LGBTQ Welcoming Congregation Committee

Submitted by Tammy Hunter, Chair

Members: Ferial Pearson; Mary Anne Chisholm; Shari Baumer; Bill Kuhn; Betty Segell; Bill Hay; Neva Cozine; David Johnson. Others participate informally or occasionally.

In the Spotlight:

Since February of 2012, a transgender youth group, Open Arms, meets monthly at the church (www.openarmsomaha.com). Meetings consist of a potluck lunch, time for personal sharing, and sometimes a focused activity. Our goal is to provide a safe and nurturing space for transgender teens, young adults, and children, as well as their families and friends.

In October, the Pride Players teen theater group performed at Second Unitarian. The group uses improvisation to create songs, poetry, monologues, and skits that explore what it means to be a gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, or straight-allied teen in Omaha. We had a potluck supper and a performance by the Players, followed by discussion and theater games.

Also in October, Second Unitarian had a booth at a National Coming Out Day Community Festival, held at ConAgra Park Plaza in downtown Omaha.

A pre-party for the Night Of A Thousand Stars Nebraska AIDS Project fundraiser was held at the Pearson's home. We had a smaller turnout this year but still raised $175.

Second Unitarian and the Open Arms Transgender Youth Group will have a booth at a May 17th LGBTQ Emerging Leaders Summit and Resource Fair. It will be held at the new Community Engagement Center at UNO.

On June 28th, we will join First Unitarian in marching in the Pride Parade in Council Bluffs and hosting a booth at the Pride Festival at Stinson Park in Aksarben.

Ads for Second Unitarian this year included the monthly online PFLAG Omaha newsletter and the Pride Players teen theater programs.

The booth at 'Earth Day' Our congregation again had an information booth at Omaha Earth Day. This year we gave away packages of organic Giant Snow Pea seeds as well as chatted with visitors about our congregation. Larry Kurtz's red wiggler earthworms attracted a crowd by demonstrating how to vermicompost food waste.

Care for the Environment Group

Submitted by Vicki Pratt, Contact

Members: Marco Ballarin, Community Garden Coordinator; Vicki Pratt contact; Clyde Anderson; many gardeners and volunteers

In the spotlight:

Community Garden: All 14 organic community garden plots are rented for this summer. Gardeners are from our congregation plus nearby neighbors. This spring we tilled the garden for the first time. It started as no-till permaculture but the weeds and herbs were starting to overtake the vegetables.

Green Sanctuary program has been on hiatus for a couple of years. We're looking for someone to revive this opportunity for our congregation to be accredited through the UUA as a Green Sanctuary. Paperwork has been submitted and several of the required projects are already complete. If you would like to help proclaim and live out our congregational, community, and individual commitment to the Earth, contact Vicki Pratt at vlpratt@cox.net. More information is at <http://www.uua.org/environment/sanctuary/>

Share the Plate Program

One half of the offering each Sunday is given to an outside non-profit organization. In the last twelve months of the program, $5,341.46 was received and then donated to the following organizations: Project Harmony; Epilepsy Foundation – Nebraska; First Unitarian Church in Oklahoma City, joined by other congregations formed the Standing on the Side of Love Fund - Tornado Relief for Undocumented Families; Chickasaw Nation Disaster Relief and Recovery Fund; Educare of Omaha; Planned Parenthood of the Heartland; One World Community Health Center; Inclusive Communities; Minister's Discretionary Fund; Nebraska Coalition for Lifesaving Cures; Siena Francis House; St. Augustine Indian Mission School and City Sprouts.

Participation with UUA

The MidAmerica Region UUA Assembly, Hunger for Justice, in Topeka, KS, was attended by Vicki Pratt, Carol Johnson, Cheri Cody, JoAnne Draper, Darrel Draper, Donna Dudley and Pat Caffrey. Recordings of the keynote address, social action event and all three worship services will be available at the MidAmerica UUA website www.midamericauua.org.

Second Unitarian Church members participated in determining our congregation's vote on selecting the new Study/Action Issue: We ranked the potential list from top to bottom. There was a tie for the top spot of Escalating Inequality and Gun Violence: A Public Health Issue; followed by Renewing and Securing Our American Democracy; Ending the War on Terror; Pursuit of a Just Peace for Israelis and Palestinians and Empowerment: Age and Ability Reconsidered. These rankings will guide how our delegates vote on the final selection at this year's General Assembly in June.

Omaha Together One Community – broad based community organizing

Second Unitarian is a charter member of this congregation-based community organizing group. OTOC unites more than 20 congregations in Omaha to build relationships and make our community a better place to live. OTOC teaches people to become effective leaders in their congregation, explore common interests, research ways to resolve concerns and issues, present solutions to decision-makers, and hold elected officials accountable.

In the spotlight - Recent Highlights

Leadership Training in August offered an overview of community organizing and how people of faith can work together for the common good.

More than 150 people attended the February Issues Conference to learn about current work of OTOC Action Teams and to identify emerging issues.

450 people bought tickets for the annual Celebration of Spring Fun(d)raiser. This evening of entertainment, food, and socializing netted more than $17,000 to be used for OTOC's operating expenses.

In the spotlight - Action Team News

Housing and Neighborhood Revitalization:

Several team members testified at the City Council Budget Hearing in support of increased funding to demolish condemned and unsafe buildings. The City Council approved $957,000 to improve the safety and appearance of neighborhoods. The team was also instrumental in the State Unicameral's approval of legislation creating the Omaha land bank to revitalize older neighborhoods.

Immigration Reform: This team is working to stop deportations of residents with no criminal record, educate elected officials on the need and benefits of immigration reform, advocate for fair treatment of local immigrants, and support local DREAMers. Actions include several meetings with Congressman Lee Terry, prayer vigils, news conferences, and urging the Nebraska Legislature to pass Resolution 399 in support of reform at the federal level. In February the team and several other organizations hosted DJ Yoon, a leader of Fast4Families, to pressure Congress to take up immigration reform. His visit started with prayer and reflections at College of St. Mary followed by education and a call to action. In April more than 700 people attended a Mass of Remembrance for deported family and friends at Holy Name Catholic Church.

Workforce Development: After visiting a successful job training program in Des Moines established by AMOS, A Mid Iowa Organizing Strategy, the team is researching support for a similar program in Omaha. The team is continuing to monitor the adequacy of services provided by the Heartland Workforce Solutions and successfully testified in favor of $25,000 funding at this year's City Council Budget Hearing.

Mental Health: This new Action Team was created in response to the need for funding and programming for mental health services. Research is now underway to improve transportation for Medicaid-eligible patients, health care for refugees, treatment programs in prisons, and support for reentry programs for inmates.

Environmental Sustainability: This newly formed Action Team is looking into ways to promote sustainable and safe sources of energy production, improve recycling programs, and expand public transportation.

Public Education: The team was formed to provide feedback on Omaha Public Schools new strategic plan. The team continues to monitor tactics for engaging parents into the active life of their children's schools.

Refugee Support: The team is helping to develop the Refugee Support Collaborative to link refugees and medical providers, provide leadership development education, and build relationships between refugees and other Omaha residents. In October seven refugee communities presented the second annual Refugee Cultural Night. More than 300 performers showcased foods, dances, and traditions.

Medicaid Expansion and State Tax Policy: The team formed in early 2014 to support the Wellness In Nebraska Act (LB887). This legislation was written to "Bridge the Coverage Gap" for the 54,000 low income Nebraskans who do not make enough money to qualify for federal assistance with health insurance premiums and also do not qualify for state Medicaid. The bill did not pass so the team is gearing up for the 2015 legislative session. OTOC helped gather support for WIN by phone banking and obtaining clergy signatures on a letter to state senators. Three Unitarian Universalist clergy in Omaha signed the letter.

Coming of Age

Unitarian Universalist teenagers usually join their congregations with a special "Coming of Age" ceremony. This ceremony is often preceded by a year-long curriculum helping them to learn more about Unitarian Universalism and articulate their own beliefs. The Coming of Age ceremony usually features the youth reading their statements of personal belief (credo statements) to the congregation (typically incorporated into the Youth Service at the end of the year in May or June). Eligible youth (current freshmen or those older who had not previously participated) chose not to participate in Coming of Age this year.

Our Whole Lives (OWL)

Our Whole Lives (OWL) helps participants make informed and responsible decisions about their sexual health and behavior. It equips participants with accurate, age-appropriate information in six subject areas: human development, relationships, personal skills, sexual behavior, sexual health, and society and culture. Grounded in a holistic view of sexuality, OWL not only provides facts about anatomy and human development, but also helps participants clarify their values, build interpersonal skills, and understand the spiritual, emotional, and social aspects of sexuality. Our current OWL program is a 26 week/lesson cycle, and the current curriculum, as well as Advisor training, is tailored for youth over the 7th grade. Parent preview and consent is required prior to participation.

Bridging

Bridging is a time for introspection and sharing with peers in the YRUU community and adult mentors/advisors to reflect on one's spiritual path in a meaningful way, with respect to this significant time of transition, as well as what that means for the next journey in life. Activities around this theme are for seniors who will be leaving YRUU. Brian Huggins, Peter de Vreede, Kalen Short have met with Advisors to discuss and reflect upon this passage and will continue this transition through the summer.

Young Religious Unitarian Universalists (YRUU)

YRUU is for youth in grades 7-12 and is a joint youth group between First and Second Unitarian Churches. They meet on Wednesday nights at First Unitarian. YRUU year runs in conjunction with the school year (September – May). The Goals of YRUU are to: grow life-long Unitarian Universalists; provide worship, celebration and rites of passage for UU youth; learn about the traditions and heritage of Unitarian Universalism; develop personal growth, relationship building & leadership skills for youth; help youth to develop a social conscience and learn to be agents of change, as a group and individually, in the world; develop continuity and foster communication between age levels of youth within the program; and to foster tolerance, understanding and acceptance of diversity

This year began with a Youth Advisor training and covenant building sessions facilitated by Nancy Combs Morgan hosted at 1st Church. Ministers from both churches, as well as all youth between 7th and 12th grades, and their parents, were invited to attend the discussion. And those serving youth through RE were invited to participate in the day-long training session.

Youth Adult Committee (YAC)

The focus of this YRUU year was building a youth-leading structure within the group. The youth formed a Youth Adult Committee (YAC), which was comprised of all youth interested in taking leadership roles, youth advisors, and interested parents. YAC officers were elected, all comprised of youth, with adult mentorship for each role.

The YAC utilized the feedback gained from the full representation of youth and parents to plan and organize programming with the structure of "The 6 Pillars of Balanced Youth Ministry" (from the UUA Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministries) = Building Community, Social Action, Worship, Learning, Leadership, Congregational Involvement.

The YAC met between one and three times monthly in order to ensure effective leadership for the YRUU, to plan weekly programming, events, and activities, and to formalize the structure of youth leadership within YRUU.

2013 – 2014 YRUU Activity Summary

- YRUU included many guest leaders this year. Justin Short provided two opportunities for trust building exercises, a yoga as spirituality discussion and experience was led by Gay Abraham, and a spirited discussion led by Jaime Alexander regarding around the topic of Unitarian Universalism and Atheism. The group also enjoyed a visit with Partner Church Minister (and her husband, young interpreter, and local host, Janet West) incorporating conversation around how Unitarian Universalism in the United States relates to the beliefs and traditions for those in Tran Sylvia.
- Other activities included visiting and participating in worship at the Hindu Temple, numerous contemplative exercises and discussions around social justice, social action and giving, as well as music worships. The youth even had an occasional game night. The youth also led an overnight, which included a UU based role play game created by Ryan and Bethany Murphy, which was followed by participation in the next Sunday's service.
- This year's YRUU activities will end with the traditional Spaghetti Works dinner (a celebration and honoring of one another and time spent together over the year), as well as Youth Service, which is youth led and focused.
- YRUU was also provided the opportunity to plan for a summer trip this year which included many fundraising activities that brought the youth closer together in community, and provided the youth a strong and tangible show of support from their congregations that really exemplified their importance and inclusion as members of their church communities. This trip to Colorado will occur in June, will include 13 youth (to include all the Seniors), and will center around a Habitat for Humanity project, as well as the UU spiritual connection to nature.

BUILDING

Building and Grounds

Submitted by Clyde Anderson & Tom Rundquist, Co-Chairs

Mission Statement: The Building & Grounds Committee works to insure the facilities of the Church are safe and meet the needs of its members and guests.

Members: Clyde Anderson and Tom Rundquist - Co-Chairs, Rick Bell, Gary Emenitove – Custodial Contact, Bill Kuhn, Larry Kurtz, Roger Nicolaisen, Tom Peterson, Craig Piquette - Board Contact.

Major Achievements:

- Thanks to the many volunteers who participated in the Fall Cleanups Oct. 5, Nov. 2, and Dec. 7 and Spring Cleanup April 26.
- During June and July volunteers painted the Church Foyer and south exterior.
- A contractor patched and restriped the parking lot eliminating several hazardous potholes.
- A contractor was hired to rebuild the southwest window well, repair the stairs and landing to the Minister's Office, and replace several panels of the sidewalk.
- Our crew removed the dead spruce tree, and a contractor removed the stumps.
- During the winter of 2012-2013, there were many complaints about the quality of snow removal in our parking lot and walks. This winter we hired a commercial contractor. Performance was great, complaints were gone, but it cost four times as much!

Goals:

- The Minister and Music & Worship Committee are discussing possible enhancements to the Sanctuary and Foyer with B&G such as painting the Sanctuary, new glass entry doors to make the entrance more welcoming and let more light in, new video displays, and an improved sound system.
- New cabinets and counter space on the east side of Kitchen
- Improved lighting and security for Church Yard
- Install gutters and downspouts on the east side of the roof.

Leadership

Tom and Clyde have co-chaired Building & Grounds for three years, and we are seeking new leaders.

Submitted by Pat Caffrey, Treasurer

A special thank you to all contributors for their generosity and stewardship in ensuring that Second Unitarian Church continues to be a vibrant and dynamic church, carrying out our mission to be Authentic, Compassionate, and Transformative in our lives, in our faith and in our world!

The Financial Statements presented include the following:

Consolidated Balance Sheet as of YTD 04/30/2014; EOY 06/30/2013; and EOY 06/30/2012

Income and Expense Report - Operating Fund as of YTD 04/30/2014; EOY 06/30/2013; and EOY 06/30/2012

To provide a historical perspective, the year end financial information for the previous two years is included in this annual report.

Presentation of Fund Balances as part of Consolidated Balance Sheet

The Consolidated Balance Sheet shows the restricted and unrestricted funds in both the assets and liabilities/members' equity portions of the balance sheet. As of 4/30/2013, Checking and Money Market Account Balances total $62,439.29. $44,810.51 is Restricted Funds. $17,628.78 is Unrestricted Funds.

In addition it recognizes the prepaid pledges and prepaid gifts as payable in 2014-2015. To accurately report these as pledges / gifts paid in 2013-2014 for 2014-2015, this amount is recorded as a Liability (Payable). Prepaid pledges / gifts will be transferred to Pledge Income in the next fiscal year of 2014-2015.

The Endowment Fund – Fund 03 is detailed on the Consolidated Balance Sheet. Included in the Endowment Fund are investments in the Vanguard Group, the donated Jefferson Pilot Annuity and the donated 5 shares of Citigroup stock. As per the accountant's recommendation, in September, 2008, the investments are marked to market after dividends have been posted:

- Changes in market value are recorded as "Unrealized Gain or Loss" account on a monthly basis for the Vanguard Group and Citigroup stock.

Treasurer Transition

It has been my pleasure and honor to serve as Treasurer for the last few years. Vicki Pratt has been appointed Treasurer for Second Unitarian Church by the Board. In addition, we have restructured the Treasurer duties and responsibilities. We understand that the stewardship of Second Unitarian Church's financial position is part of everyone's responsibility. Treasurer responsibilities will be aligned within the positions of the Treasurer, a Bookkeeper and the Assistant Treasurer (Asst. Treasurer) which is currently the Office Administrator. The alignment of responsibilities ensures segregation of duties and that best practices are incorporated into the financial management of Second Unitarian Church. Coordination among all three is necessary to ensure the integrity of financial management for Second Unitarian Church.

Treasurer – Vicki Pratt: A member of Second Unitarian Church, appointed by the Board, who is responsible for oversight of financial duties and reporting, communication and collaboration with others as related to Treasurer responsibilities.

Bookkeeper – Vicki Allely, Bookkeeping Services LLC: As a contracted, paid position, the bookkeeper is responsible for transactions not done by the Asst. Treasurer, Bank reconciliations, Reporting and to provide technical assistance as requested. The Bookkeeper reports directly to the Minister with guidance from the FCC and the Board.

Asst. Treasurer – Gary Emenitove: As part of the Office Administrator's responsibilities, Asst. Treasurer duties include much of the day-to-day activities, including but not limited to processing Deposits / Contributions and Offerings, Accounts Payable which is primarily check and bill payment processing; and a myriad of additional responsibilities. For all of this and more, we are grateful to Gary Emenitove, for his talents and untiring efforts.

adopted May 23, 2010

To strengthen the bond of peace within and beyond the Second Unitarian Church of Omaha: We pledge

- to create a religious community where we freely explore our values and honor our diversity as a source of communal strength.
- to build healthy relationships by respecting our differences and assuming good intentions.

- to do our best to forgive if we hurt one another, to make amends and to reconnect in a spirit of gratitude and generosity.
- to abide by this covenant in celebration of the common purpose that unites us.

Faithfully done, our work carries forward the ministry of this church to create loving community and supports our mission to grow as a beacon of hope—sharing a vision of a world community that embraces diversity, justice, and respectful stewardship within the interdependent web of existence.
