February 6  To Hate Like This (Is To Be Happy Forever)  Rev. Scott McNeill
Will Blythe wrote a book about life, religion, emotion, obsession (and basketball). What are the things you hold to passionately? What are the things that sustain you and entertain you and frustrate you?

First Hour  Writing for Spiritual Growth  David Martin

February 13  The Life of a Dusty, Old, Stuffed Rabbit  Rev. Scott McNeill
Skin Horse and the Rabbit talked about becoming real and being loved in The Velveteen Rabbit. It never hurts to be reminded about how we’re truly worth being cared for - and how relationships can help us find that compassion.

First Hour  Standing on the Side of Love: Marriage Equality  Lifespan Religious Growth & Learning

February 20  This I Believe As a Unitarian Universalist  Justin Short, Vicki Pratt, & Judy Eller
This continuing series focuses on individual perspectives on UU values and beliefs from members, with an invitation to connect with others through reflection and appreciation of differences.

First Hour  From Age-ing to Sage-ing - A Continuing Discussion  Anita Jeck

February 27  The Education of God: Adam and Eve  Rev. Scott McNeill
Our third installment of The Education of God brings us the beginning of creation - and all of the follies and foibles that Adam and Eve can stumble into. Join us for an entertaining Sunday and another take on the creation stories!

First Hour  Roots and Wings - Understanding UUism  Lifespan Religious Growth & Learning
Kanye West (rap artist, outspoken about justice, music and just about everything else) has a song called “Family Business” where he talks about his relatives coming together, even during difficult times, to support one another. Confucius (Chinese philosopher, assisted governments in demanding loyalty) wrote of the need to respect one’s parents, one’s government, one’s siblings, and one’s friends.

Though separated by about 2,500 years, Kanye and Confucius both hit a similar chord: the need for a strong family support. Confucius wrote of families bound by blood and genealogy, more than families that were chosen (though he, too, thought highly of the relationship between friends). Kanye talks about aunts and uncles and cousins and friends – people who matter deeply, regardless of who is married to whom.

Families and the idea of connections that last are vital to society and to our own individual growth. For better (and worse), families are where we learn about ourselves, about human interaction, about how to treat others and how to live. Some of us are blessed to have great families of origin and others have a more difficult history. Some of us have families of one parent or none or two parents of the same sex or three or more.

The fascinating thing to me, however, is how we are able to create our own families. Sure, there is something about those to whom you are forever bonded, the relatives that may annoy you or love you, but definitely are present in your life. But after we mature and grow into our full selves, we are able to create connections and build relationships with people that sustain us more than blood can. Our “family of choosing” as many people call it – sometimes we have sisters who are ten years our elder or a second mother or father. However we define (or refuse to define) those relationships, they matter a great deal to us.

Is a church a family? Not quite. We hold deep connections with people here, love one another in a deeper sense – but there is a difference between the people we choose to be around and our families of origin. With people we choose to know and care for, there can be a deeper, but ultimately different connection because we are not bound to be with them – we decide to be. We make the voluntary choice to attend worship or religious education, to volunteer, to give, to eat together and paint together, to grow gardens together, to make justice together.

As wonderful as family can be, a church community can be even better because we are active participants in creating the world we dream about, in building the relationships that we need and that sustain us. Here, we are able to shed the dynamics of our family of origin and play new roles, freeing us of the bonds that hold us back. Here, we can create healthy, whole, right relationships that encourage us to grow and support us in our moments of real difficulty. Being in relationship with those you choose to care about or those you are bound to by blood, can be as frustrating as it is rewarding. And yet, we have the potential to gain so very much from those interactions that we cannot simply live in this world alone. May our church community grow stronger by the day, so that we can be the people we want to be, be the church we want to be, be the world we want to be.

In faith,

Rev. Scott
Winter’s cold grip seems to have frozen everything. While the temptation is strong to curl up under the warmest blanket one can find and wait until spring, the “cold” reality is that if we want to be ready for spring, there is much to be done now. So, bundled up and warmed by the fire within, it’s off we go!

To begin, our stewardship campaign begins this month with our kick-off event on Saturday, February 26. As was announced last month and elsewhere in this newsletter, our theme this year is “We are Family.” We believe that taking care of our family means providing for and caring for one another. And in so doing, we create and nurture a community that strengthens us, and enables us to reach beyond our walls to those who are also looking for a spiritual home. In setting our stewardship goals for this coming year, the Board has chosen these priorities:

- Providing fair compensation for our professional staff, according to UUA guidelines.
- Adding a paid Membership Coordinator staff position, to attend more closely to our visitors, friends, and new members, helping them (and all of us!) to better connect with one another.
- Funding program budgets according to their needs, in fulfillment of our mission.

I hope you will plan to join your church family in the fun and fellowship on February 26.

Saturday, March 26 brings the return of the Second Unitarian Silent/Live Auction. Last year’s event was a rousing success, and we would love to top it this year! Even though it is tempting to hoard all the wonderful offerings of goods and services to ourselves, please tell your friends about the auction so they can plan to participate in the fun and help support Second Unitarian Church.

Looking quite a ways ahead to May, there are a few dates to circle on the calendar. Starting off the month, we will have an installation ceremony for Rev. Scott on the afternoon of Sunday, May 1. This is our chance to “show off” a bit, and celebrate our joy at finding one another. Next will be our Annual Congregational Meeting at noon on Sunday, May 22. Important items of business to be transacted that afternoon will be approval of the 2011-2012 budget, election of Trustees and Endowment and Nominations Committee members, and approval of Guidelines for Right Relationships in support of our Congregational Covenant. Look for more information on these events in coming months.

Helping those in need -

A very special thank you to all of those who gave to the offering during our Christmas Eve Service. This offering went to support the Minister’s Discretionary Fund, which assists people throughout various stages of life and development. We are privileged to offer this assistance to members and friends of Second Unitarian Church. The offering on December 24th added $461.52 to the total amount. Additional contributions can be made by writing a check or completing a cash envelope and specifying “Minister’s Discretionary Fund” in the memo line.

In faith,
Rev. Scott

We Are Family

Year round stewardship — it’s not just a one time event anymore! And it’s not just about money. As we have been communicating, it’s about connections and commitment. Most of us have come to and stayed at Second Unitarian Church because of the connections we have found. Once we have those connections, we become committed to making the church a viable place not only to meet our own personal needs, but also those of our church family and of the wider community. Yes, we make that commitment through our annual monetary pledge, but more than that, through our giving of our time and our caring for one another.

Soon you will be receiving an invitation to join your fellow Second Church family on February 26 for an evening of fellowship. It’s a family event with a catered buffet dinner, fun group dancing and of course, some messages to start our thinking about our commitment to Second Unitarian. (See the separate article on page 5 in this newsletter for more event details.)

Soon after this event you will each receive a call from a visiting steward. We hope you will make the time for a face to face meeting to discuss your thoughts about our church and to show your commitment to our mission.
Come to the Second Unitarian Fellowship Dinner Saturday, February 26, at 6 p.m. in the Common Room at First Unitarian Church.

The theme of the Stewardship sponsored event is “We Are Family.” After the buffet dinner, Rev. Scott will lead us in a celebration of our church’s vision for the future, and all will be invited to try out some line dancing designed to be fun for all ages.

The dinner will be served compliments of Second Unitarian with a special thanks to Hap Abraham Catering. Because the dinner is being catered, reservations are needed to provide a count for the pre-ordered meals.

To RSVP please contact the Church Office at info@secondunitarianomaha.org or 402-334-0537, ext. 114, by Wednesday, February 16, and give your name, the number of adults, teens, and children attending, and the number of people requesting the following food choices:

- Spinach-Stuffed Chicken Breast
- Stuffed Portobello Mushroom (Vegan)
- Child’s menu including Chicken Strips and Mac and Cheese

Childcare will be provided at the First Unitarian location. For childcare, please contact Leslie Harvey at childcare@secondunitarianomaha.org or use the signup sheet in the sanctuary by February 16 to reserve childcare at this event.

See you there for a great evening of fun and fellowship!

Save the Date

Sunday, May 1, 2011, will be the installation service of our settled minister. This service will feature clergy from the area and beyond, and will formally install Rev. Scott McNeill as the minister here at Second Unitarian Church. There will be more details in upcoming newsletters.
Religious Education
By Portia Love, Director of Religious Education

On January 17, we commemorated and celebrated the birth of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., He was the leader of the Civil Rights Movement of the late 1950s and of the 1960s.

As I get older, I can no longer see tapes of him or read about him without feeling great emotion. I am 54 years-old. Dr. King was 39 years old when he was assassinated. He didn't even live to be 40. A very young man.

Dr. King was not willing to lead the Civil Rights Movement. Like so many great leaders, particularly some of those in the Bible (Moses, Noah), he asked, “Why me?” Not because he was unwilling or afraid, but more because he was a simple man and believed someone else could do the job better. But he did take it on, knowing that, eventually, his life would end because of it.

Dr. King led the well-known bus boycott, for which he was arrested. He was the leader of a number of peaceful protest marches, the front porch of his home was bombed while his wife and children were inside. Dr. King was stabbed, spit on, beaten, threatened, disrespected and arrested (I don't know the exact number of times, but it was more than five). One of the times he was arrested, he was thrown into solitary confinement and not allowed to make a phone call. He was kept in jail for eight days.

Dr. King won the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964, at the age of 35, making him the youngest person to ever receive the prize. He studied Mohandas Gandhi and incorporated Gandhi’s principles and techniques of peaceful demonstration in his fight for civil rights.

During the “Children’s Crusade,” one of the marches held in Birmingham, a group of children, teenagers and college students marched. The adults did not want them to be involved in this dangerous march, but the young people insisted. ONE THOUSAND children marched. Sheriff Connor, a particularly vicious southern lawmaker, turned fire hoses on those children. Fire hoses that were so strong, the force of the water could strip the bark off trees. He turned dogs on them (for those of you who know me, this is particularly frightening) and a number of them were arrested (some of them as young as six years old) and taken to jail! I wonder how many of us would have been willing to allow our children to participate in this? I know my mother would not have allowed me or any of my siblings to participate and I know that I would not have allowed my kids to participate.

In 2011, how sad that we are still living in times that require others to fight for their basic civil rights: Gay people, Mexican immigrants, people fighting for religious freedom, etc. And, across the country, people are being arrested for joining this fight and protesting to ensure that others are not being mistreated. Just like Dr. King.

On April 3, 1968, Dr. King delivered a speech that indicated he knew he was not going to live much longer. He was assassinated the next day.

As you celebrate, think of this man. His accomplishments did not just benefit Black people, but all people. He was willing to give so much, including his life, so that others could live.

Portia’s Pick of the Month:
What if Nobody Forgive?—this book is a collection of stories that include a story called, “The Children’s Crusade,” which is about the children who marched with Dr. King. Each story emphasizes that “Each and Every Person is Important.”

Save the date, and look for more detailed information coming soon!
Starting in February, the First Hour on the Fourth Sunday of each month will be discussing some matter related to Unitarian Universalism. We’re calling it “Roots and Wings.” This can include our UU History, current topics in Unitarian Universalism, what is happening in our UU World magazine, details about Second Unitarian Church of Omaha, and much more!

Please join us for the first of these in February as we discuss "Heroes and Mentors," an article from the Winter 2010 UU World (available on the web at http://www.uuworld.org/ideas/articles/172751.shtml).

First Hour, Writing for Spiritual Growth

During First Hour at 9 a.m. on the first Sunday of each month, we will celebrate this time by placing our understanding of spirituality into poetry and prose, which adds clarity and passion to our lives. Join us in creating the world we desire through the written word.

All members and friends of the Second Unitarian Church of Omaha are welcome to participate. We welcome all sojourners who wish to share the paths on which they walk in search of enlightenment.

We have no creeds, no goals, no competitive members, and no grades. Our group’s motto is “Just Write.” Our belief is the truth for each person will appear, when we write enough. - David Martin

Guidelines for Right Relationships - Keeping Hearts Connected

Workshop on Conflict Resolution
To improve skills in conflict resolution and to maintain right relationships when hearts are broken

Sunday, February 13, Noon to 1:15 p.m. Lunch will be served
All Members, Affiliates, Visitors, and Teens are invited

The Committee on Ministry will be sponsoring a Conflict Resolution Workshop on Sunday, February 13, as part of our ongoing effort to help everyone live our covenant in our daily lives. Our Covenant has not made it to the Governing Documents page on the website yet, but a draft, approved by the congregation in May, 2010, is printed in this and every newsletter (see below). We hope you take a moment to look at this document and compare it with the Covenant we recite each Sunday during worship service. The one not recited is much more specific and does not lend itself to the ritual of worship but this does not make it any less important. They are complementary and both ask us to help each other, to minister to each other.

Promotion of our ministry to each other is the function of the Committee on Ministry and our goal is for everyone to remember this covenant during those inevitable times when conflict enters our lives or words spoken by friends become hurtful. Our workshop will help those who attend recognize conflict as it develops and provide them with the means to address it and seek paths to resolution. Recent local and national events suggest that we need this now more than ever. Recognizing our humanity, our inherent fallibility, and finding a way to heal the hurt is what living our Covenant means and we hope you join us as we strengthen our bonds to one another.

CONGREGATIONAL COVENANT OF RIGHT RELATIONS
Adopted May 23, 2010

To strengthen the bond of peace within and beyond the Second Unitarian Church of Omaha: We pledge

- to create a religious community where we freely explore our values and honor our diversity as a source of communal strength.
- to build healthy relationships by respecting our differences and assuming good intentions.
- to listen appreciatively and endeavor to speak directly, honestly, and compassionately, particularly when we are in conflict.
- to do our best to forgive if we hurt one another, to make amends and to reconnect in a spirit of gratitude and generosity.
- to abide by this covenant in celebration of the common purpose that unites us.

Faithfully done, our work carries forward the ministry of this church to create loving community and supports our mission to grow as a beacon of hope—sharing a vision of a world community that embraces diversity, justice, and respectful stewardship within the interdependent web of existence.
50 Years of Camp UniStar!
All-Camper Reunion and Celebration

Saturday March 12, 2011
First Universalist Church, 3400 Dupont Ave S, Minneapolis

History Displays and Happy Hour at 4:30pm
Potluck Dinner at 6 p.m.
Program at 7 p.m.
Dance at 8 p.m.

Camp UniStar is a Unitarian Universalist camp for families, individuals, and youth located on Star Island in Cass Lake, Minnesota. UniStar is owned by the Prairie Star District of the UUA. 2011 marks Camp UniStar’s fiftieth year! Join in the celebration on March 12, 2011.

Each summer, UniStar offers 13 weeks of awesome experiences, with about 65 people attending from Saturday to Saturday. In 2011 there will be Work Week (June 4-11), two Youth Weeks for 7th to 12th graders (June 11-18; June 18-25) and ten Family Weeks for families and adults of all ages (every week from June 25 through September 3). Each Family Week has a theme with a daily two hour morning program. Programs may include topics such as sailing, dance, yoga, science, religion, current events, nature, and crafts. Campers may choose to stay in the lodge or cabins, or tent right next to the lake shore.

The lake encourages water activities (swimming, kayaking and sailing); the forest trails attract hikers; sunrises and sunsets invite meditation. Each year campers tell us they return for the peace, quiet, and serenity of this island retreat with no roads or commercial enterprises, as well as fun times with friends old and new. Star Island even has its own lake, Lake Windigo. Information about 2011 summer programs and the annual Camper Reunion party (newcomers are welcome!) is available at http://www.campunistar.org. Join us on March 12 and plan on a great week at Unistar in 2011!!

PRIVACY POLICY FOR WEEKLY E-NEWS AND MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

As stated in church policies: Respect for the privacy of members, friends, and visitors is a primary consideration. When newsletter submissions contain personal information (phone number, street address, email address, etc.), it is the author’s responsibility to get the subject’s permission to publish this information. Since both the church newsletter and weekly e-news are transmitted electronically and information therein may more easily be retransmitted, it’s essential that any personal information be approved for inclusion.

In general, it’s preferable to omit personal information, but in those cases where it’s necessary (such as a location for an offsite meeting), those who submit articles should ask for permission to publish the personal information. An alternative is “Please call or email the church office for contact information.” Contact the Office Administrator for more information.

Our 2011 Conference theme comes from a favorite reading in our hymnal, "It Matters What We Believe" (#657) by a beloved UU religious educator, Sophia Lyon Fahs. It begins, "Some beliefs are like walled gardens. They encourage exclusiveness and the feeling of being especially privileged. Other beliefs are expansive and lead the way into wider and deeper sympathies." What kind of believers are we? We are our best selves when we achieve understanding and empathy. We are at our worst when we can only proclaim what we are against. How do we challenge ourselves to be our best, while avoiding the trap of being exclusive ourselves? Come and explore this theme with us. How do we articulate our individual beliefs? How do we help our children form their own moral compass? And how do we, as a church, take a public stand on ethical issues?

Keynote Speaker: Brian Eslinger, former minister of the UU Fellowship of Ames, Iowa, served there for thirteen years. He is a graduate of United Theological Seminary in the Twin Cities and a former president of Prairie Star District.

Judy Lecturer: Rev. Dr. Kendyl Gibbons is a life-long Unitarian Universalist, who currently serves as senior minister of the First Unitarian Society of Minneapolis. She graduated from the College of William and Mary and Meadville Lombard Theological School, and now teaches at United Theological Seminary of the Twin Cities and the Humanist Institute. She has served as President of the UU Ministers Association, and is a published author in Parenting Beyond Belief and the hymnbook Singing the Living Tradition.

Mirrors of Privilege: Making Whiteness Visible Workshop

By Vicki Pratt

This year’s Prairie Star District Annual Conference is in Des Moines, Iowa. While making your travel arrangements consider getting to Des Moines in time to participate in Friday’s Mirrors of Privilege workshop.

The PSD Social Justice Network and GRACE (Growing Racial And Cultural Equity) Team are sponsoring this workshop that catalyzes dialogue to undo race-based oppressions. The workshop combines video presentations, personal reflection, and small group conversations. Participants in the film talk about learned and internalized sense of privilege. Their stories reveal what is required to move through denial, defensiveness, guilt, fear, and shame into making a commitment to ending racial injustice.

This workshop is Friday, April 8, at the First Unitarian Church of Des Moines. Registration fee of $15 includes lunch.

Join us to learn pathways to build bridges between white people and people of color, who can then have authentic relationships across a racial divide.

Details and registration are at www.psduua.org/drupal/events/AnnualConference2011

Women’s Alliance

By Ruth Nicklin

The Women’s Alliance will meet Monday, February 14. It is Valentine’s Day so it is only fitting that we celebrate the church’s love for its community.

Please join us in the Common Room of First Unitarian Church as we welcome Louise Jeffrey as she speaks to us about Neighbors United. Learn how Baptists, Unitarians, and Lutherans together planted the seed for this now thriving organization.

The social hour begins at 6:30 p.m., followed by a brief business meeting and dinner at 7:00 p.m.

Thanks to Lois Norris, Barb Dewell, and Betty Morar, the dinner will be spiral ham with elegant potatoes, green beans, apricot-glazed carrots, African vegetarian stew, cranberry salad, rolls, and dessert bars. The cost is $10.

For reservations, contact Janet West by Sunday, February 9. All women of the First and Second Unitarian Churches are always welcome to attend.

Do you need a ride to the dinner? Contact Janet and she will arrange for someone to pick you up, take you to the meeting, and bring you home.

Meditation Reincarnated

By Kevin Dunlop

Have you tried meditation before? Do you know what meditation is or how to do it? Each month a group of church members and friends of the church meet to learn and practice the art of meditation. We study the writings of accomplished meditators and discuss how to apply these teachings in our own lives. We are now studying the book Taking The Leap by Pema Chodron.

Meditation Reincarnated meets on the fourth Thursday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the sanctuary. Our next meeting is Thursday, February 24. Please join us in learning what can become a very fulfilling practice in your life. It’s a wonderful way to learn relaxation skills and to grow spiritually. No previous meditative experience is required.

Camp StarTrail

July 31 - August 5, 2011

Come to Camp StarTrail (between Omaha and Lincoln) for another grand adventure/retreat for UUs of all ages. Past activities have included bead-making; dream analysis; painting; quilting; survival skills; Amazing Race; sock hop; talent show; barn dance, camp fire (with s’mores); challenge courses; OWL for adults; swimming, nature hikes; ad hoc writers’ group, bridge games and lots more.

Camp StarTrail pampers the camper with four housing options—meals included: (a) hotel-style luxury with private baths; (b) college dorm-style rooms with bath down the hall; (c) rustic cabins with a shower house; and, for the purist, (d) actual honest-to-goodness camp-style camping with a short walk to the rest rooms.

Rev. Scott McNeill and Rev. Sarah Gettie Burks will be the chaplains/worship leaders that week.

Camp StarTrail is July 31 to August 5, 2011. Camping that fits your budget and your soul. Find out how we “pamper the camper” at www.psduua.org/campstartrail.

Camp StarTrail is sponsored by the Prairie Star District of UUA.
Second Circle

All teens are invited to join Second Circle, meeting the first and third Sundays of the month, September through May. We meet across the street from the church, walking over together after the first portion of the worship service.

Our time is spent focused on connection: to each other, to the outer community, to the world, and to our religious and spiritual selves. We explore through discussion, ritual, and a variety of activities. All meetings are facilitated by two adult volunteers from our church community.

Please refer questions to Gay Abraham or Anita Jeck.

The group, for parents from both Omaha UU churches, will be facilitated by Joel Haskins from Second Unitarian. The group meets during the YRUU time but your teen does not have to attend YRUU for you to attend the parents’ group.

Mandatory Ten Digit Phone Dialing Begins February 26

Because of the limited number of telephone numbers available in the 402 Area code, the Nebraska Public Service Commission has announced that beginning February 26, 2011, all calls made from the 402 Area Code must include the area code. This is commonly known as 10 digit dialing.

This includes all home, business, and wireless phones as well as phone lines used as fax lines or connected to alarm systems.

In recent years, the increase in dedicated phone numbers (cell phones, ATM machines etc.) has resulted in a depletion of available numbers in the 402 calling area. The implementation of 10 digit dialing will help alleviate the problem.

This change will not create any new charges on your phone bill.

Long distance dialers will still have to dial 1.

Emergency (911) and other three digit numbers (411, 211 etc.) are not affected by this change. All telephone providers operating in the 402 Area Code are impacted by this dialing change.
