Article 1. Name.

The name of this church shall be: Second Unitarian Church of Omaha.

Article 2. Denominational Affiliations and Covenantal Relations.

Second Unitarian Church shall be a member of the Unitarian Universalist Association and of the MidAmerica Region. It is the intent of this Congregation to make annual financial contributions equal to its full Fair Share as determined by the Association's Annual Program Fund formula.

As a member of the Unitarian Universalist Association, we accept that our faith is covenantal and determined by commitment and participation. The Covenant of Right Relations of Second Unitarian Church establishes the promises members make to each other regarding how we will commit to and participate in this community of faith.

Article 3. Mission Statement.

Our Mission is to be Authentic, Compassionate and Transformative in our lives, in our faith, and in our world.

Article 4. Non-Discrimination and Confidentiality Policies.

Section 4.1. Non-discrimination.

Eligibility for membership, hiring practices, and the call of religious professionals shall be made without discrimination based on color, race, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, religious heritage, national origin, socio-economic status, marital status, age, disability or appearance. In all dimensions of congregational life, we shall conduct ourselves without discrimination toward others.

Section 4.2. Confidentiality.

It is expected that information about all aspects of the Church, except confidential information as defined here, shall be readily available to all members and the Minister. As defined in these Bylaws, the term "confidential information" shall include all information, in oral, written or electronic format, that is shared with persons who have a need to know as a result of their position with the Church with the assurance that it will not be shared beyond these persons without the written permission of the original owner of the information. The types of information to be treated confidentially shall include, but not be limited to:

- 4.2.a Financial and other personal information of members
- 4.2.b Personnel and payroll records of all employees and federal and state taxpayer information of vendors
- 4.2.c All information shared by a member with the Minister in a pastoral care setting, except for information that must be shared with public authorities to protect the safety of any person
- 4.2.d Codes and account numbers to protect the business security of the church as an institution.

Article 5. Membership.

Section 5.1. Eligibility.

Any person 16 years of age or over, or any young person who has completed our senior high Coming of Age program, may become a member of this Church. The Church shall not adopt nor require any articles of faith or creed as a condition of membership.

Section 5.2. Members and Affiliates.

- 5.2.a. Members. Members shall be those who have signed the Membership Book and who have fulfilled requirements of membership set forth in Section 5.4.
- 5.2.b. Affiliates. An affiliate is a person who, though not a member as defined under Section 5.2.a., makes an annual pledge and an annual recordable financial contribution towards their pledge. The Church encourages affiliates to become members in order to participate fully in the life of the Church. Affiliates are entitled to have their contact information in the Church Directory, but otherwise have no rights of membership as defined in Section 5.3. An affiliate will lose their status if either of the following are true:
 - 5.2.b. 1. If by June 30, they have not made a recordable financial contribution for the year ending June 30, their affiliate status will end as of June 30, OR
 - 5.2.b. 2. If by June 30, they have not made a pledge for the next fiscal year beginning on July 1, their affiliate status will end as of June 30.
 - 5.2.b. 3. The Chairperson of the Board of Trustees will notify affiliates of this loss of status by letter.

Section 5.3. Rights of Membership.

- 5.3.a. Members shall have the exclusive right to decide with their vote:

- 5.3.a. 1. to elect or dismiss members of the Board of Trustees, Endowment Committee, and Nominations and Leadership Development Committee, and delegates to General Assembly,
- 5.3.a. 2. to call or dismiss a minister,
- 5.3.a. 3. to adopt the annual budget,
- 5.3.a. 4. to approve solicitation of funds or expenditures in excess of five percent of annual budgeted income for a single project or expenditure,
- 5.3.a. 5. to approve disbursements from the Endowment Fund,
- 5.3.a. 6. to buy or sell property or to mortgage (encumber) property,
- 5.3.a. 7. to amend the Bylaws, and,
- 5.3.a. 8. to decide other issues submitted to the Congregation by the Board of Trustees.
- 5.3.b. Members shall have the right to receive pastoral care and rites of passage from the Minister at no cost.

Section 5.4. Requirements for Admission to Membership.

To be admitted to membership, a person must sign the Membership Book and make a financial pledge of support. The date membership begins is the date the Membership Book is signed. The pledge must represent an amount judged by the member to be their fair share of the Church's needs, in light of the member's income and means. If a pledge is made by a household, all with eligibility may become members of the congregation by signing the Membership Book. If, after signing the Membership Book, a new member does not make a financial pledge of support to the Church within 60 days of the date of their signing, they will be contacted by the Finance Coordinating Council. If at the time of contact they do not make a financial pledge, they will be removed from membership by a letter from the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees.

Section 5.5. Ongoing Requirements for Membership.

5.5.a. To continue in membership, members must make an annual financial pledge of support for the next fiscal year before June 30 of the current fiscal year and also make a recordable financial contribution during each year that they pledge.

5.5.b. The Board of Trustees, with input from the Minister when applicable, has the authority to waive ongoing requirements of membership for reasons of compassion, such as health and ability issues. If possible, the matter should first be addressed with the individual, to clarify their desire to continue membership.

Section 5.6. Expectations of Members and Affiliates.

It is expected that members and affiliates will commit to living in accord with the Values of Unitarian Universalism and the Church's Covenant of Right Relations. Members are expected to attend the Annual Meeting. Members and affiliates are encouraged to attend Sunday worship, to participate in the life and activities of the Church, and expected to read communications sent by the leadership and staff of the congregation via postal mail and email.

Section 5.7. Notice of Membership Status.

- 5.7.a. Each year, after the Annual Meeting and before July 1, the Board of Trustees shall direct that members who have not made a pledge of financial support for the upcoming fiscal year beginning July 1 or who have not made a recordable financial contribution during the current fiscal year, be notified by a letter, signed by the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, that they will be removed from membership unless they make a pledge for the upcoming fiscal year within 30 days of the date of the notification letter if they have not made a pledge, or unless they make a recordable financial contribution for the current fiscal year.
- 5.7.b. Each year, in preparation for the Church's Annual Meeting, the Board of Trustees will notify by letter all those members who made a financial pledge for the current fiscal year, but have not made a recordable financial contribution, that if they do not make a recordable financial contribution before or on the day of the Annual Meeting, they will not be eligible to vote at the Annual Meeting. If the financial contribution is made the day of the Annual Meeting, it must be in cash or electronic donation.

Section 5.8. Termination of Membership.

- 5.8.a. Any member may choose to withdraw from membership for any reason by requesting that their name be removed from the current membership list by sending written notice to the Secretary.
- 5.8.b. Members can be removed from membership, as directed in Sections 5.4., 5.5, and
- 5.8.c. for failing to make an annual pledge at their time of joining the congregation, for failing to make a pledge for the upcoming fiscal year during the annual stewardship campaign, OR by failing to make a recordable financial contribution during the current fiscal year.
- 5.8.d. Members can be removed from membership as per the process set forth in the Church's Disruptive Participants Policy.

Section 5.9. Renewal of Membership.

- 5.9. a. Any former member who voluntarily requested their removal from membership may renew their membership by following the Membership Committee's policy and process for membership renewal.
- 5.9. b. Members who are removed from membership for reasons having to do with pledging or making a recordable financial contribution, as per 5.4, 5.5 and 5.7.a. above, may renew their membership by making a financial pledge and/or making a financial contribution on an existing pledge.
- 5.9. c. Former members who are removed from membership for disruptive behavior may only have their membership renewed by following the process set out for them at the time of their removal, as per the Disruptive Participants Policy.

Article 6. Congregational Meetings.

Section 6.1. Annual Meetings.

The annual meeting of the congregation shall be held at such time, place, and manner as shall be fixed by the Board of Trustees.

Section 6.2. Special Meetings.

A special meeting of the congregation may be called by the Board of Trustees, or by 25 members who have filed with the Board Secretary written notice of their intention. Notice of special meetings shall include a statement of matters to be considered, and the business of the meeting shall be limited to the matters as stated.

Section 6.3. Notice.

Two notices of all congregational meetings, stating the purpose of the meeting, shall be sent to each member of the church not less than seven days and not more than 30 days before the meeting. The two notices shall be sent via electronic mail, weekly church enews, and/or postal mail. Announcements may also be made at in-person or virtual services on two Sundays preceding the meeting.

Section 6.4. Right to Vote.

The right to vote at congregational meetings shall be extended only to persons who have become members at least 60 days prior to the meeting. Proxy votes shall not be accepted.

Section 6.5. Quorum.

Thirty-five percent of the voting membership shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at a congregational meeting. A quorum shall be defined as the requisite number of members who are present at the meeting, either in-person or virtual at the time any action is taken by the members.

Section 6.6. Procedures.

In-person and/or virtual meeting format shall be at the discretion of the Board of Trustees. All congregational meetings shall be conducted in a timely and courteous manner, adhering to the Covenant of Right Relations with open interaction among all interested parties. Sufficient time shall be provided for discussion. At the discretion of the Chairperson or upon the request of any member, the Chairperson shall provide for voting by secret ballot on the matter under consideration. For virtual meetings, a means of virtual voting shall be provided. Unless otherwise specified herein, all action at any meeting shall be by majority vote. The rules contained in Democratic Rules of Order shall govern all meetings in matters not covered by the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. If voting is virtual and the discussion is closed, the meeting adjournment shall take place following the announcement of the electronic virtual voting results. Minutes of all congregational meetings shall be kept by the Board Secretary.

Section 6.7. Absentee Ballots.

A member who knows in advance that they will not be able to attend a congregational meeting in person or virtually may obtain an absentee ballot from the Secretary of the Board of Trustees or designee appointed by the Board. The absentee ballot must be obtained prior to the scheduled congregational meeting. The absentee member must return the ballot directly to the Secretary or designee prior to the scheduled meeting.

Absentee ballots will be available for voting on pre-announced topics such as election of candidates from an announced slate. Absentee ballots will not be counted if the pre-announced topic or slate of candidates is amended during the congregational meeting.

Decisions on which topics may be included on the absentee ballot are at the sole discretion of the Board of Trustees. The Board is responsible for preparing all absentee ballots in such a manner that the absentee ballot clearly indicates the voter's preferences. Absentee ballots will not count towards a quorum, but shall count as votes for or against the action to be taken.

Article 7. Board of Trustees.Section 7.1. Selection and Term.

The governing body of this church shall be a Board of Trustees consisting of six members elected for three-year terms by the church membership.

- 7.1.a. Selection: Two Trustees shall be elected annually by the members. If the number of candidates for election to the Board of Trustees exceeds the number of seats to be filled, then voting at the annual meeting shall proceed by secret ballot with each voting member present at the meeting allowed to vote for a number of candidates equal to the number of seats to be filled. The candidate(s) receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected. There shall be separate nominations and elections for the regular three-year terms and for any unexpired terms.
- 7.1.a. 1. No person who has served four successive years on the Board of Trustees is eligible for election or appointment until that person has been absent from the Board of Trustees for a period of not less than one year.
- 7.1.a. 2. No more than one family member from the same household shall serve on the Board of Trustees at the same time.
- 7.1.a. 3. No member of the congregation shall be eligible to serve on the Board of Trustees if a family member from the same household is an employee of the church.
- 7.1.a. 4. No candidate nominated for the Board of Trustees shall be on the slate for election at the Annual Meeting unless they have been cleared through a background check regarding offenses against children as per the Safe Congregation Policies and Procedures. The Nominations and Leadership Committee is responsible for ensuring that the background check is done and for notifying any ineligible candidates for the Board of Trustees of their ineligibility for election. If someone is nominated to the Board of Trustees from the floor during the annual meeting and is elected, that person cannot take office on the Board of Trustees until they have been cleared through a background check. If the newly-elected member of the Board of Trustees does not have a clean background check and therefore does not take office, the vacancy may be filled by election by the Board of Trustees, as per Section 7.3.

- 7.1.b. Term: Terms of office for elective Trustees shall begin July 1, following their election at the annual meeting. All Trustees shall have been members and actively involved in the Church for at least two years prior to the start of their terms and be prepared to attend the June Board of Trustees meeting for orientation.

Section 7.2. Removal.

Any Trustee may be removed from office by majority vote of the voting members present at a congregational meeting. Any Trustee who has missed three consecutive meetings or four meetings between annual congregational meetings may be considered for dismissal at the next congregational meeting.

Section 7.3. Vacancies.

The Board of Trustees may elect a member to complete the unexpired term caused by a vacancy, except when an unexpired elective term extends beyond the next congregational meeting. Said member shall serve until that annual meeting, when a member will be duly nominated and elected by the membership to fill the remainder of the unexpired term.

If there is a vacancy on the Board, the Board may ask a current member completing their term to continue on the Board for another year to provide continuity. Board members who volunteer to stay for an additional year will stand for election for a one year term. If no current member wishes to stay for another year, the board will notify the Nominations and Leadership Development Committee. The Nominations and Leadership Development Committee will be charged with nominating a member to stand for election for a one year term on the Board to fill that vacancy. Preferably this will be a member with previous Board experience.

Section 7.4. Legal Authority.

The Board shall be the legal representative of the Church.

Section 7.5. General Responsibilities.

The general responsibilities of the Board, which shall not be delegated, are to:

- 7.5.a. Provide leadership in advancing the mission (Article 3) of the Church.
- 7.5.b. Govern and lead the Church as the representative body of the Congregation.
- 7.5.c. Set policies which establish goals with a long-range perspective for church organizational units.
- 7.5.d. Monitor achievement of goals.
- 7.5.e. Ensure that all governing documents of the church are followed.

Section 7.6. Specific Responsibilities.

The specific responsibilities of the Board, which shall not be delegated, are to:

- 7.6.a. Ensure ongoing communication with the Congregation.
- 7.6.b. Meet at a regularly scheduled time once each month, and as often in addition as necessary to carry out the affairs of the church.
- 7.6.c. Submit an annual budget to a congregational meeting for approval.
- 7.6.d. Adopt and publish a set of Policies and Procedures, which will serve as a guide and framework for committees and other church-related activities.
- 7.6.e. Organize policies and make them available to all members of the Congregation.
- 7.6.f. Be the interpreter of the Bylaws, and conduct a review of them at least every five years.
- 7.6.g. Oversee the management and control of assets in the Endowment Fund.
- 7.6.h. Ensure that a ministerial assessment, including compensation review, takes place by working with the Committee on Ministry, and as specified in the Ministerial Agreement.
- 7.6.i. In the case of a ministerial vacancy, the Board of Trustees will assume all ministerial responsibilities under 10.3.

Section 7.7. Board Meetings.

- 7.7.a. All regular Board meetings, whether in person or virtual, will be publicized.
- 7.7.b. A majority of Trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.
- 7.7.c. Any member of the church may attend except during those times when an executive session is declared. It is courteous to inform the Board Chair in advance of attendance. Should there be topic(s) to be presented, the presenter must request to be added to the Board agenda.

Article 8. Officers of the Board of Trustees.

Section 8.1. Selection and Terms.

- 8.1.a. The outgoing Board and officers shall remain in office, retain decision making responsibilities and preside at any meetings occurring through June 30.
- 8.1.b. New members elected to the Board will attend the June Board meeting without general voting privileges. This is to acquaint new members with board functions and assure successful transition of duties. At the June meeting, incoming and continuing members, who will comprise the new Board, will elect all officers. All officer positions on the Board begin July 1.

Section 8.2. Duties of the Officers.

- 8.2.a. The Chairperson shall preside at all congregational meetings and at all meetings of the Board of Trustees. The Chairperson shall be an ex-officio member of all committees and shall assure that the Ministerial Compensation Review Committee convenes as provided in Article 10.
- 8.2.b. The Vice Chairperson shall perform the duties of the Chairperson when the Chairperson is unable to act or while the office is vacant. In the event that the office will be vacant for more than 1 month, a new member of the Board will be appointed by the Board. The Vice Chairperson will succeed to the Chair at that time and a new Vice Chairperson shall be elected to serve the remaining term.
- 8.2.c. The Secretary shall keep full records of all actions of congregational meetings and of the Board of Trustees, shall cause notice to be given of all meetings as provided in the Articles and Bylaws, shall maintain a current roll of voting members of this church and is responsible for certifying voting members as required at congregational meetings, and shall distribute and provide for distribution and maintenance of records for keys/key codes to the church. The Membership Book, headed by the Articles of Incorporation, shall set apart in a prominent place in the church by the Board Secretary.
- 8.2.d. The Chair, Vice Chair, and Secretary shall comprise the Executive Committee of the Board and shall meet in advance of the regularly scheduled Board meeting to prepare the monthly Board meeting agenda. The minister may be an additional, non-voting member of the Executive Committee, as specified in their Ministerial Agreement.

Section 8.3. Vacancies of Officers.

The Board of Trustees may elect one of its members to fill any vacancy among the officers; such members to hold office until the next election of officers.

Section 8.4. Removal.

The Board of Trustees may remove an officer from their position as an officer of the Board. A majority vote of the Board shall be required for removal.

Article 9. Nominations and Leadership Development Committee.

Section 9.1. Selection and Term.

There shall be a Nominations and Leadership Development Committee composed of three members. Each year at the annual congregational meeting one member will be elected. The term of membership on the Nominations and Leadership Development Committee is three years. No member of the Committee is eligible for re-election until at least one year after the end of a previous term. Vacancies in the Nominations and Leadership Development Committee may be filled by the Board of Trustees; such appointments to last until the next annual meeting.

Section 9.2. Duties.

- 9.2.a. The Nominations and Leadership Development Committee shall recruit the following nominees to present to the membership at the annual meeting: Two (2) candidates for Board of Trustees (Section 7.1 Board of Trustees Selection and Term); One (1) candidate for Endowment Fund Committee (Section 14.2 EFC Membership); One (1) candidate for the Stewardship Committee (Section 16.1.b. Selection and Term) and One (1) candidate for Nominations and Leadership Development Committee (Section 9.1 Selection and Term)
- 9.2.b. The Nominations and Leadership Development Committee shall make an open call for candidates through the weekly electronic newsletter and other appropriate communications in addition to one-on-one recruitment contacts. The Nominations and Leadership Development Committee shall publish the names and information about each candidate who will appear on the ballot proposed by the Committee. Publication may be on the website, by mail, or by electronic communications and shall be coordinated with communications from the Board of Trustees pertaining to the annual congregational meeting. (Article 6.3 Notice). At the annual meeting, nominations for any of the positions shall be accepted from the floor as an addition(s) to the ballot. These candidates may be afforded time during the meeting to give the congregation information about their qualifications and aspirations.
- 9.2.c. Per Safe Congregation Policies and Procedures of Second Unitarian Church, the Nominations and Leadership Development Committee shall obtain a signed Code of Ethics Form from Board of Trustees candidates. In addition, the Nominations and Leadership Development Committee shall obtain a completed and signed information/ consent form from nominees for Board of Trustees to conduct background checks against the National Sex Offender Registry and Child Abuse Neglect Registry. In the event that the background check raises concerns, the individual's name shall not be presented on the ballot. In the event that a member is nominated from the floor and elected to the Board of Trustees, the candidate shall not

- assume the Board position until the individual has signed the Ethics Form and passed the background checks successfully.
- 9.2.d. The Nominations and Leadership Development Committee shall collaborate with the Board of Trustees in the congregation's search to fill a vacancy for Transitional Minister. At the direction of the Board of Trustees, the Nominations and Leadership Development Committee shall recruit a Search Committee of 5 members, representative of the congregation, to recommend for appointment by the Board of Trustees. (Section 10.2.b Transitional Minister)
 - 9.2.e. The Nominations and Leadership Development Committee shall collaborate with the Board of Trustees in the congregation's search to fill a vacancy for Settled Minister. At the direction of the Board of Trustees, the Nominations and Leadership Development Committee shall assist in the recruitment of a Search Committee comprised of at least 5 members to be presented as a slate for approval by the congregation at a congregational meeting. (Section 10.2.a. Settled Minister)
 - 9.2.f. The Nominations and Leadership Development Committee shall arrange and facilitate training for church membership to develop leadership skills and/ or to further the ministry and vision of the church.

Article 10. Minister.

This section describes ministerial types. Settled Ministers are called by the congregation. A non-settled minister, hereafter referred to as a Transitional Minister, is hired by the Board of Trustees and covers ministerial types as defined by the UUA.

Section 10.1. Selection of Ministers.

- 10.1.a. Settled Minister: In the event of a vacancy in the position of Settled Minister, the Board of Trustees shall present to the Congregation, at a special congregational meeting held for that purpose, the candidate recommended by the Ministerial Search Committee (see Section 10.2). The Minister shall be called by an affirmative vote of 90% of the members present at this meeting. Voting shall be by recorded ballot.
- 10.1.b. Transitional Minister: In the event of fulfilling the position of a Transitional minister, the Board of Trustees shall approve by majority vote and will set forth a contract directly with the candidate recommended by the Transitional Minister Search Committee. The Congregation approves the position of Transitional Minister in the church budget.

Section 10.2. Selection of Ministerial Search Committee.

- 10.2.a. Settled Minister:: The Board and Nominations and Leadership Development Committee shall issue a call to all members for names of potential nominees. The Board, in consultation with the Nominations and Leadership Development Committee, shall present a slate of at least five members at a congregational meeting. The slate shall be approved as presented by a majority vote of the members present at a congregational meeting. In the event of a vacancy on the committee, the Board of Trustees may appoint a member of the congregation to the committee.

- 10.2.b. Transitional Minister: The Board of Trustees shall request that the Nominations and Leadership Development Committee form a Transitional Minister Search Committee, made up of five church members in good standing. The slate shall be recommended to the Board of Trustees for appointment.

Section 10.3. Rights and Responsibilities of a Minister.

- 10.3.a. The Settled Minister shall:
- 10.3.a.1. Have exclusive control of the pulpit and shall have general direction of the religious activities of the church as well as freedom to express their opinion outside the pulpit. This church shall maintain the tradition of a free pulpit and shall place no restrictions upon the teachings of the minister.
 - 10.3.a.2. Attend to the Congregation's spiritual interests and needs.
 - 10.3.a.3. In cooperation with the lay leadership, be responsible for the conduct of worship and participate in the education and pastoral care programs.
 - 10.3.a.4. Participate in the denomination and the community.
 - 10.3.a.5. Be a non-voting member of the Board of Trustees and Endowment Fund Committee and ex-officio member of all standing committees.
 - 10.3.a.6. Be responsible for the selection, termination, supervision, and annual written evaluations of all paid staff. Input from other relevant sources will be sought.
 - 10.3.a.7. Make recommendations annually to the Board of Trustees for the compensation of the paid staff.
 - 10.3.a.8. Make a report to the members at the annual congregational meeting and bring to the attention of the Board of Trustees any matters which seem to be pertinent to the general welfare of the church, and make any recommendations as seem to be proper.
 - 10.3.a.9. Function within the Bylaws and Board of Trustees policies.
- 10.3.b. The Transitional Minister shall fulfill the duties as set forth in their Contractual Agreement with the Board of Trustees.

Section 10.4. Committee on Ministry.

The purpose of the Committee on Ministry is to monitor and nurture the health of the ministry of the Congregation. This Committee serves as a channel for mutual problem solving and communication for the Minister and the Congregation. Committee members should have the confidence of both the Minister and Congregation.

- 10.4.a. It is the responsibility of the Board of Trustees to form the Committee. The Committee shall consist of at least three members appointed by mutual agreement between the Minister and the Board. No Trustee or any person related to a Trustee shall serve on the Committee.
- 10.4.b. The term of office shall be for three (3) years, but initial terms shall be staggered so that at least one person is replaced each year.
- 10.4.c. No member of the Committee may serve more than two (2) consecutive terms without an intervening period of at least two (2) years.
- 10.4.d. Assessments of the work of the Minister and the ministry of the Congregation will be conducted as specified in the Ministerial Agreement.

Section 10.5. Dismissal of Minister.

- 10.5.a. Failure of the Settled Minister to follow Church policies, loss of confidence by the Congregation, or unprofessional behavior shall be grounds for recommending the dismissal of the Minister. The Board of Trustees, or twenty-five church members by petition, shall call a congregational meeting for consideration of the dismissal of the Minister. A majority vote is necessary for dismissal or the acceptance of a resignation in lieu of dismissal. Voting shall be by recorded ballot.
- 10.5.b. Failure of the Transitional Minister to follow Church policies, loss of confidence by the Congregation, or unprofessional behavior shall be grounds for the Board of Trustees to dismiss the Minister at any time during the contract period or contract non-renewal at the end of the term as specified in the contract. A majority vote of the Board of Trustees is necessary for dismissal, contract non-renewal, or the acceptance of a resignation in lieu of dismissal.

Section 10.6. Ministerial Transparency.

The ministerial agreement will be available to any member of the congregation in good standing by asking the Chair of the Board of Trustees for a copy.

Article 11. Church Organization

Section 11.1. Covenant of Right Relations

The Covenant of Right Relations is the groundwork for clarifying expectations and creating a safe environment for our members. When conflicts arise between members, with the minister, with staff, within or between committees or task groups, the Conflict Resolution Policy and Process provides guidance which is consistent with Second Unitarian Covenant of Right Relations.

Section 11.2. Committees

Committees shall include Finance Coordinating Council, Religious Education, Connections, Building and Grounds, Worship, Social Justice, and Stewardship. Membership on committees is open to members and affiliates of the Church.

Section 11.3. Authority of the Board of Trustees.

The Board of Trustees shall have the authority to create, dissolve, combine, and divide Committees. The Board of Trustees may appoint persons to fill vacancies for elected positions that occur outside of the regular annual meeting elections. The Board of Trustees is charged with making changes as needed to fulfill the mission and vision of the church.

Section 11.4. Meetings of Committees

- 11.4.a. All meetings of Committees in 11.2 shall be open to church members and affiliates. All final and formal actions shall be taken at open meetings.
- 11.4.b. All committee meetings in 11.2 will be publicized electronically, and if practicable, in the Order of Service.

Section 11.5. Conformity of Policies and Empowerment of Lay Units.

Any policy made by an organizational unit of the Church shall conform to the Bylaws and to the policies of all higher units. The order of units is: Congregation, Board of Trustees, and Committees. The Board of Trustees shall be the arbiter in case of a dispute. All units are empowered to act without prior approval provided that their actions conform to relevant policies and to their budget and spending plan.

Section 11.6. Qualifications of Lay Leaders.

All lay leaders (Trustees and Committee Chairs) shall be members of the Church. (see Section 5.2.a.).

Section 11.7. Committee Chairs.

Candidates for succession to the Chairs of a Committee shall be nominated annually by the committee members. After two years in office, it is recommended that a Committee Chair shall not serve as chair of that committee again for at least one year. A succession plan for committee leadership will be established by each committee. A Committee Chair whose performance is inadequate may be removed by the Board of Trustees.

Article 12. Fiscal MattersSection 12.1. Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall have custody of all church funds, and shall ensure deposit of all funds to the credit of the Second Unitarian Church of Omaha. The Treasurer, with the Board of Trustees approval, shall determine that all bank deposits are held in FDIC insured deposit accounts or in minimally risk exposed investment assets as per the determined goals of the deposit. Minimally risk-exposed investments may be mutual funds or Exchange Traded Funds, for example, with investment strategy goals consistent with the particular set of deposits. Risk can be determined by comparing the timeframe of deposit need (withdrawal) versus the investment return expected by the fund over 1, 3 or 5 year investment.

Section 12.2. Authorization to Sign Checks.

The Board Chairperson, the Vice Chair and the Treasurer shall be authorized to sign checks. Signatures of two of these officers are required on all checks.

Section 12.3. Budget Limits.

At the beginning of the budget year each Committee Chairperson is authorized to spend the amount approved at the Annual Meeting within their budget request. Expenditures outside the budget request require prior approval by the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees has authority to spend up to a maximum of $10,000 outside of the Congregation's approved annual budget before Congregational approval is required.

Section 12.4. Audits.

An audit of all fiscal operations of the church, including the endowment fund, shall be conducted at least biennially and when changing treasurers. The audit may be conducted by an independent certified public accountant (CPA) or by an audit committee as the Board chooses. The audit committee is to include at least three members from the congregation, at least one of whom is a Board member. It shall not include members of the Endowment Fund Committee. The Board shall review all audits.

Section 12.5. Protection of Non-Profit Status.

Neither the Board of Trustees nor any officer or employee of the Church shall take any action or allow any activity or use of church property which shall jeopardize the tax-exempt status of the Church or its property. Nothing in these Bylaws shall be construed to allow a violation of this section.

Section 12.6. Insurance.

The buildings and contents owned by the Church shall be adequately insured and the Church shall carry Management Liability, Legal Defense, Workers' Compensation, and other forms of insurance in amounts and with such carriers as determined by policy of the Board of Trustees.

Article 13 The Second Unitarian Church of Omaha Endowment Fund

Section 13.1. Name.

The Church shall establish and maintain a fund known as The Second Unitarian Church of Omaha Endowment Fund, hereafter called the “Endowment Fund.”

Section 13.2. Purpose.

The purpose of the Endowment Fund is (1) to enhance the mission of Second Unitarian Church of Omaha and (2) to promote Unitarian Universalist Values in the Community.

Article 14. The Endowment Fund Committee (EFC)Section 14.1. Custodian.

Endowment Fund Committee (hereinafter called the “EFC”) shall be the custodian of the Second Unitarian Church of Omaha Endowment Fund.

Section 14.2. EFC Membership.

The Endowment Fund Committee shall consist of three (3) members, all of whom shall be voting members of the Second Unitarian Church of Omaha for a minimum of one (1) year prior to the start of their term on the committee. One member will be elected each year at the Annual Meeting. The term of each member shall be three (3) years. No member of the EFC shall serve more than two (2) consecutive three (3) year terms. After a lapse of one (1) year, former EFC members may be re-elected. The Minister, the Chair of the Board of Trustees, and a representative from the Finance Coordinating Council shall be advisory, non-voting members of the EFC. All members will complete a financial conflict of interest (COI) statement each year by July 31 to file with the board secretary.

Section 14.3. Nominations.

The Nominations and Leadership Development Committee shall nominate new members for the EFC.

Section 14.4. Vacancies.

In the event of a vacancy on the EFC, the Board of Trustees shall appoint a qualified member of the Congregation to fill the vacancy until the next annual meeting, at which time the Congregation shall elect a member to fulfill the term of the vacancy.

Section 14.5. Meetings.

The EFC shall meet at least quarterly, or more frequently as deemed by it in the best interest of the Endowment Fund. A quorum shall consist of three (3) members. A majority present and voting shall carry any motion or resolution.

Section 14.6. Reports and Audit.

The EFC shall report on a quarterly basis to the Board of Trustees. In addition, the EFC shall provide a complete account of the administration of the fund during the previous year at the annual congregational meeting. The endowment fund will be audited as part of the regular biennial church audit.

Section 14.7. Advisory Members.

The EFC may request other persons vetted by the EFC serve as advisory members and, at the expense of the Endowment Fund, independent of the normal distribution requirements, may provide for such financial counseling on investment or legal matters as it deems to be in the best interest of the Endowment Fund.

Section 14.8. Liabilities.

Members of the EFC shall not be liable for any loss that may be incurred upon the investment of the assets of the Endowment Fund except to the extent that such loss shall have been caused by bad faith or gross negligence. No member shall be personally liable as long as they act in good faith and with ordinary prudence. Each member shall be liable only for their own willful misconduct or omissions and shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of any other member. No member shall engage in any self-dealing or transactions with the Endowment Fund in which the member has direct or indirect financial interest and shall at all times refrain from any conduct in which their personal interests would conflict with the interest of the Endowment Fund.

Section 14.9. Assets.

All assets are to be held in the name of the Second Unitarian Church of Omaha Endowment Fund.

Section 14.10. Financial Recommendations to Board.

Recommendations to hold, sell, exchange, rent, lease, transfer, convert, invest, reinvest, and in all other respects to manage and control the assets of the Endowment Fund, including stocks, bonds, debentures, mortgages, notes, or other securities, as in their judgment and discretion they deem wise, prudent and in accordance with the religious values of the congregation, are to be made by the EFC for approval by the Board of Trustees, with subsequent execution by the EFC.

Article 15. Distributions From The Endowment Fund

Section 15.1. Gift and Accounting Records.

The EFC shall abide by and keep a record of the terms and restrictions of all gifts to the Endowment Fund and shall determine the principal and earnings of the Endowment Fund. The “principal” shall be defined as the original amounts contributed by donors; and “earnings” shall be defined as income, interest, dividends, rents, profits, and appreciation of investments.

Section 15.2. Use of the Endowment Fund.

The Endowment Fund is a perpetual, intergenerational fund to be used to support the financial sustainability of the Church. The Endowment Fund may be used for any purpose deemed appropriate by the Endowment Fund Committee subject to the approval of the Board. This may include support for ongoing operations as well as capital expenditures, subject to the distribution requirements set forth in Section 15.3

Section 15.3. Distribution Requirements.

The Endowment Fund is designed to continue in perpetuity. The principal amounts contributed to the Endowment Fund shall remain intact. This will ensure donors their contributions will continue to earn for the fund in perpetuity. Endowment distributions are to be made from the earnings on the fund. Of paramount importance is that distributions made to the church operating budget assure the financial security and sustainability of the Church. Distributions may occur when an operating budget results in a deficit. Part of any operating budget may include periodic capital expenditures for equipment and building and grounds. The Endowment Fund distribution may be used to reduce or eliminate the deficit that results from any type of church expenditure. Distributions will be suspended whenever the fund total is less than $250,000.

Cash and investment accounts will be utilized to mitigate any deficits, but Endowment Fund distributions may also be used. Decisions regarding how best to utilize all resources (cash, investments and the Endowment Fund) will be made as part of the budgeting process.

Continuing growth of the Endowment Fund is a goal of the Church. The amount of the distribution from the Endowment Fund should be carefully considered against the growth of the Endowment Fund through appreciation and contributions to the fund. An objective of the church is to achieve sustained growth in the Endowment Fund to enhance its ability to support the Church’s endeavors.

The Board of Trustees, Endowment Fund Committee, and Finance Coordinating Council will annually recommend Endowment Fund distributions. Approval of the distribution of the Endowment Fund will occur as part of the approval for the annual operating budget. The Endowment Fund distribution will be shown as a specific line item in the Income section of the annual budget and is subject to review and approval by the church membership.

Article 16. Stewardship Committee

Section 16.1. Selection and Terms of Stewardship Chair.

- 16.1.a. There shall be a Stewardship Committee with leadership by a Chair and Vice Chair. Each year at the annual congregational meeting, a Vice Chair will be elected for a 2 year term, the second year of which the Vice Chair assumes the duties of Chair. Should the Chair or Vice Chair positions become vacant, the vacancy may be filled by the Board of Trustees, such appointment to last until the next annual meeting.
- 16.1.b. The Nominations and Leadership Development Committee shall recruit a Vice Chair candidate for the slate of nominees presented to the congregation at the annual meeting. All members of the congregation shall be considered eligible for nomination.
- 16.1.c. The Vice Chair will rotate to Chair of the committee their second year. The Chair is expected to mentor the Vice Chair on philosophy, procedures and processes of stewardship as well as committee responsibilities
- 16.1.d. The Stewardship Chair and Vice Chair shall invite individual members, committees and/or teams to perform roles and tasks to conduct the duties of the Committee as set forth in this article.
- 16.1.e. Two people may be appointed or elected to fill the position of Stewardship Chair or Vice Chair; in which case they serve as Co-Chairs or Co-Vice Chairs.

Section 16.2. Congregational Involvement.

- 16.2.a. Stewardship of congregational resources involves more than fundraising. All members of the congregation are expected to support and participate in stewardship events and activities.
- 16.2.b. All committees and task teams of Second Unitarian Church shall assist the Stewardship Campaign as appropriate and requested. The Stewardship Chair and Vice Chair shall direct and coordinate the congregational stewardship campaign.

Section 16.3. Duties.

- 16.3.a. The Stewardship Committee shall plan, coordinate, and implement the annual budget drive campaign that reflects the congregation's mission, vision and priorities.
- 16.3.b. The Stewardship Committee shall gather financial commitments from congregants.
- 16.3.c. The Stewardship Committee shall provide regular updates to the congregation about stewardship, financial needs and giving levels.
- 16.3.d. The Stewardship Committee shall express appreciation and affirmation to all givers for their contributions.

- 16.3.e. The Stewardship Chair shall attend meetings and be a participant in the Finance Coordinating Council.

Article 17. Legal Matters.

Section 17.1. Legal Counsel.

Legal Counsel may be appointed by the Board of Trustees. The Counsel may or may not be a member of the Church. The Counsel shall respond to questions from the Board of Trustees regarding the legality of policies and/or actions.

Section 17.2. Indemnification.

The Church shall indemnify all employees, elected and appointed representatives of the Church, and all members of the Board of Trustees against any liability asserted against such person and incurred in the course and scope of their duties or functions within the Church to the maximum extent allowable by law, provided the person acted in good faith and did not engage in an act or omission that was intentional, willfully or wantonly negligent, or done with conscious indifference or reckless disregard for the safety of others. The provisions of this article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such person may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, insurance policy, vote of members or otherwise.

Section 17.3. Dissolution.

In the case of dissolution of the Church, all of its property, real and personal, after all just claims upon it are paid, shall be conveyed to and vested in the Unitarian Universalist Association, the MidAmerica Region of the Unitarian Universalist Association, or another Unitarian Universalist entity as determined by the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees shall perform all actions necessary to effectuate such conveyance.

Article 18. Amendments.

Section 18.1. Bylaws.

These Bylaws may be altered, amended or replaced by a majority vote of the voting members present at a congregational meeting. A transcript of the changes proposed and of the existing section, if any, being considered for amendment shall be included with the first notice of a congregational meeting called for the purpose of amending the articles of incorporation or these Bylaws.

Section 18.2. Articles of Incorporation.

The articles of incorporation may be amended by a two-thirds majority of the voting members present at a congregational meeting or voting absentee.

Article 19. Conveyance of Real Property.

Any conveyance of real property which this corporation shall make must be by the vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the voting members present or voting absentee at the annual or special meeting.

Article 20. Captions.

Captions (including headings, tables of contents, title page, index, page numbers, section numbers) are inserted in these Bylaws for convenience only and in no way define, limit, or describe the scope or intent of these bylaws, or any provision thereof, nor may in any way affect the interpretation of these Bylaws.

Article 21. Severability.

If any provision of these Bylaws is held illegal or unenforceable in a judicial proceeding, such provision shall be severed and shall be inoperative and the remainder of these Bylaws shall remain operative and binding.
